Further, more than 90.32% of the machinery in value terms of the machinery yet to be ordered, required for our units pursuant to the Objects of the Issue will be imported. Delay in delivery of the said machinery or damage or loss in transit will adversely affect our business, operations and profitability. For the corresponding periods our EBIDTA was Rs 7,309.65 lacs and Rs. 9,328.19 lacs respectively. 10. We may be adversely affected by a slowdown in the global economy especially Europe

As of December 31, 2009, exports form 17.13% of our total sales of which the continent of Europe accounts for approximately 77.79%. We do not have long-term sales contracts with our customers. The sale to each customer is dependent on our ability to manufacture products of acceptable quality that meet the customer's specifications and to deliver such products on a timely basis. In the event of our inability to meet their requirements or expectations for reasons within or beyond our control leading to any loss or significant reduction in business from these customers, would adversely effect our revenues and thereby our profitability.

These agreements contain certain restrictive covenants which require us to take the prior written consent of the said banks before undertaking the following activities throughout the currency of the agreement including but not limited to:

Any failure to service our indebtedness, maintain the required security interests, comply with a requirement to obtain a consent or otherwise perform our obligations under our financing agreements could lead to a termination of one or more of our credit facilities, trigger cross default provisions, penalties and acceleration of amounts due under such facilities which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We import various equipment for our facilities and we intend to import about 90.32% of plants and machinery required for the objects of the Issue (as a % of orders yet to be placed), for which we shall make payment in foreign currency. Accordingly, depreciation of the INR against the U.S. dollar and other currencies may adversely affect our financial position and results of operations by increasing the Rupee cost of servicing.

Our Company is exposed to foreign exchange risks by virtue of being an exporter of products whereby an appreciation of the INR against the U.S. Dollar could adversely impact receivables.

While our Company may enter into forward contracts or other derivative instruments in order to appropriately mitigate risks on account of currency fluctuation, there can be no assurance that the risks arising out of fluctuations by the INR against the U.S. dollar can be fully mitigated.

19. Under-utilisation of expanded capacities may adversely impact our financial performance

Our Company has undertaken expansion of its production capacities based on its estimates of market demand and profitability. In the event of non-materialisation of our estimates and expected orders due to factors including adverse economic scenario, change in demand, change in fashion, etc., our capacities may not be fully utilised thereby adversely impacting our financial performance. For further details on capacity utilization and planned capacity increase, please refer chapter titled "Business Overview" on page 78 of the Red Herring Prospectus.

20. We have entered into certain related party transactions and expect to do so in the future.

We have entered into, and in future may enter into, certain related party transactions with our Promoters, Directors, Group Entities and key managerial personnel. While we believe that all our related party transactions have been conducted on arm's length bases, we cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transaction been entered into with unrelated parties. Further, we may be unable to recover liquidated damages from one or more related parties for losses that may be suffered by us either due to such related parties' performance shortfalls or their failure to fulfil obligations on timely bases. The total amount of related party transaction for the Nine month period ended December 31, 2009 amounted to Rs. 556.40 lacs. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, there are no related party transactions with any of the related parties except as mentioned under the heading titled "Statement of Related Party Transaction" beginning on page 190 under the chapter titled "Financial Information" beginning on page 167 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

21. Some of the premises used by our Company including our Registered Office and Corporate Office are not owned by our Company

The premises used by our Company as its Corporate Office is taken on a short-term leave and license basis from our Promoters and their relatives. The premises used for our Registered office, Weaving House, Yarn Dyeing and Weaving Unit, Dyeing Unit, Garment Production Unit are taken on the basis of long term lease agreements for 95 years in various industrial areas. Further Delhi Branch Office (Sales) and Show Room for Textiles at Paris are taken on the basis of short-term leave and license agreements from various third parties. There can be no assurance that these agreements will be renewed upon expiry or on terms and conditions acceptable to us. Any failure to renew these agreements or procure new premises will increase our costs or may force us to look out for alternative premises which may not be available or which may be available at more expensive prices. Any or all of these factors may have a material adverse effect upon our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details please refer to the chapters titled 'Business Overview', 'Our Management' and 'Related Party Transactions' beginning on page nos. 78, 137 and 165 of this Red Herring Prospectus respectively.

22. We have not entered into a definitive agreement for the premises used as our design studio cum garment sampling house at Sewree, Mumbai.

The premises used as our design studio cum garment sampling house has been acquired vide two MoUs dated July 09, 2007 and February 29, 2008. We have not entered into any formal sale deeds for the premises. Further, the MoUs have not been registered and consequent to the non registration, the MoUs shall not be admissible as evidence in legal proceedings, and parties to that agreement may not be able to legally enforce the same. In case of any dispute, we may lose our right to use the premise.

For further details please refer to the Section titled 'Properties' in the chapter titled 'Business Overview', beginning on page no. 78 of this Red Herring Prospectus respectively.

23. Lease-Cum-Sale Agreement dated June 23, 2008 (the "Agreement") signed between our Company and Karnataka Industrial Areas Development Board shall stand terminated in case our Company fails to complete the Civil work, erected machinery and commencement of production at the end of period of four years from the date of this Agreement or possession certificate whichever is later.

Our Company has signed a lease-cum-sale Agreement dated June 23, 2008 with Karnataka Industrial Areas Development Board (the "lessor") for our land at plot no. SW-45&50, Apparel Park Industrial Area, bearing survey nos. parts of 71, 72 and 76 within the village limits of Arehalliguddadahalli, Hobli Kasaba, Taluka Doddaballapura, District Bangalore Rural. As per the terms of this Agreement, the lease shall be automatically terminated, in the event our Company fails to complete the civil work, erected machinery and commencement of production at the end of period of four years from the date of this Agreement or possession certificate whichever is later. Further, on determination of the Agreement, the lessor shall forfeit 25% of the allotment consideration amounting to Rs. 2,01,10,500/- paid to the lessor by our Company.

24. Our Company does not have any long term sales contracts with any customer.

Our Company's sales take place on the basis of purchase orders. We do not have any long term sales contracts with our customers and hence are unable to bind them in a long term relationship with us. Our ability to receive the initial order as well as repeat orders from a customer is dependent on our ability to manufacture products of acceptable quality, at a competitive price and to deliver such products on a timely basis. In case a customer is not satisfied with our product, price or delivery and does not place repeat orders with us, this could adversely affect our sales and financial results. Further, our inability to add new buyers to our sales portfolio may hamper growth of our business and profitability.

25. We experience seasonality in the garmenting segment.

Around 93.43% of our total garments sales for the nine month period ended December 31, 2009 were exported, out of which 77.79% was exported to Europe. Europe experiences two fashion seasons namely summer and winter. Our garmenting business is thus seasonal to this extent thereby leading to higher revenues in the second and fourth quarter. Further any disturbances or disruptions caused during these particular seasons could lead to reduction in our revenues and could have material adverse effect on our financial performance.

26. Our Promoters and Directors have Interest in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefit.

Our Promoters and Directors may be deemed to be interested to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them, their friends or their relatives or our Group Entities, and benefits arriving from their directorship in our Company. Our Promoters are interested in the transactions entered into between our Company and themselves as well as between our Company and our Group Entities. For further details, please refer to the chapters titled ‘Business Overview’, ‘Our Management’ and ‘Our Promoters and their Background’, beginning on page nos. 78, 137 and 155, respectively and the section titled ‘Financial Statements’ beginning on page no. 167 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

27. Our Promoters have interest in certain companies, which may engage in similar businesses, which may create a conflict of interest. Further we do not enjoy contractual protection by way of a non-compete or other agreement or arrangement with our Group Entities.

Three of our Group Entities viz. Mahan Synthetic Textile Private Limited, Golden Seam Textiles Private Limited and M/s. Balaji Corporation are involved in a similar line of business as that of our Company i.e. including but not limited to manufacturing, export, sale, trading and earning commission from trading in textile. Currently Mahan Synthetic Textile Private Limited and Balaji Corporation are in the business of trading and commission income arising there from in textile and Golden Seam Textile Private Limited is in the business of manufacturing, export, sale and trading of textile (men’s bottom wear). Further, as on date our Company is neither involved in manufacturing / trading in men’s bottom wear nor into commissioning income arising from textile. As per the objects clause of these entities, they are authorised to expand their business in lines of business similar to that of our Company. As on date, Our Company has not signed any non-compete or such other agreement / document with our Group Entities, thus the interests of these entities may conflict with the Company’s interests and / or with each others if these entities expand their business in the future. The Company follows a strategy of using its vertically integrated operations, in-house design capabilities and the decades of experience in the textile industry to effectively compete with competitors, including potential competition from group entities. However, in the event, any of the group entities expand in the same business as that of the Company, our strategy may not be fully successful in this regard. For further details, please refer to the chapters titled, ‘Business Overview’, ‘Our Promoter Group and Group Entities’, beginning on page nos. 78 and 158, respectively and the chapter titled ‘Related Party Transactions’ beginning on page no. 165 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

28. Our inability to upgrade to the latest technology may adversely affect our growth, market position and profitability.

Advancement in technology may require us to make additional capital expenditure for upgrading our manufacturing facilities so as to compete with our various competitors. In the event that we are not able to respond to such technological advancement in a timely manner, we may lose our competitive edge thereby adversely affecting our profits.

29. Our inability to effectively implement our growth strategies or manage our growth could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As a part of our growth strategy, we are planning to make investments designed to increase sales of our products, especially those where our presence is currently limited. Our success over the period of 25 years has enabled us to achieve growth in terms of sales from Rs. 12,656.42 lacs for the financial year 2005 to Rs. 43,925.73 lacs for the nine months period ended December 31, 2009. Further our profitability has increased from Rs. 640.65 lacs in the financial year 2005 to Rs. 2,856.45 lacs for the nine months period ended December 31, 2009. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to execute our strategy on time and within the estimated budget in the future. Our growth strategy is subject to and involves risks and difficulties, many of which are beyond our control and, accordingly, there can be no assurance that we will be able to implement our strategy or growth plans, or complete them within the budgeted cost and timelines. Any inability on our part to manage our growth or implement our strategy effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, we operate in a highly dynamic industry, and on account of changes in market conditions, industry dynamics, technological improvements or changes and any other relevant factors, our growth strategy and plans may undergo changes or modifications, and such changes or modifications may be substantial, and may even include limiting or foregoing growth opportunities if the situation so demands.

- 30. *Our insurance policies do not cover all risks, specifically risks like product defect / liability risk, loss of profits and workmen's compensation, In the event of the occurrence of such events, our insurance coverage may not adequately protect us against possible risk of loss.

In addition to risks arising from natural disasters and risks to properties and personnel (like personal injury/loss of life), in the course of our business, our operations are also subject to the risks arising from or as a result of use of pesticides and other hazardous substances. These risks include, but are not limited to accidental release or discharge of hazardous substances, explosions, poisoning, spills/leaks, insect/snake bites, environmental pollution etc. One or more of the aforesaid factors may result in closure or suspension of operations and imposition of civil and/or criminal penalties.

While we believe that we maintain insurance coverage in amounts consistent with industry norms in each of our regions, our insurance policies do not cover all risks, specifically risks like product defect/liability risk, loss of profits and workmen's compensation, and are subject to exclusions and deductibles. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance had been availed. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. For details on the insurance policies taken by our Company, please refer to the chapter titled 'Business Overview' beginning on page no. 78 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

- 31. *Our success largely depends on our key managerial personnel and our ability to attract and retain them. Any loss of our key managerial personnel could adversely affect our business, operations and financial condition.

We depend significantly on the expertise, experience and continued efforts of our key managerial personnel. If one or more members of our key managerial personnel are unable or unwilling to continue in his/her present position, it could be difficult to find a replacement. Our business could thereby be adversely affected. Opportunities for key managerial personnel in our industry are intense and it is possible that we may not be able to retain our existing key managerial personnel or may fail to attract/ retain new employees at equivalent positions in the future. As such, any loss of key managerial personnel could adversely affect our business, operations and financial condition. For further details on the key managerial personnel of our Company please refer to the chapter titled 'Our Management' beginning on page no. 137 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

- 32. *Our employees may unionize in the future, thereby restricting the flexibility of our labour policies.

As on date, our employees are not represented by any labour union. However, our employees may unionise in the future. While we consider our current labour relations to be satisfactory there can be no assurance that we will not experience future disruptions to our operations due to disputes including strikes, work stoppages, or increase wage demands by our employees or other problems with work force which may adversely affect our business or operations. In that case, there may be restrictions on the flexibility of our labour policies.

- 33. *Our inability to keep pace with the ever-changing fashion trends can hamper the demand for our products / our business.

We operate in a highly creative and dynamic fashion industry. The ever-changing nature of the fashion industry subjects us to uncertainties associated with the ever-changing market trends. Any inability on our part to understand the prevailing world-wide trend or to forecast changes from time to time may affect our growth prospects. The product mix in our garment business changes according to season and therefore the business is seasonal to that extent.

- 34. *Volatility in prices and non availability of raw materials may have an adverse impact on our operations.

We do not have any agreement with suppliers with respect to supply of raw materials purchased by us from them. Any significant increase in the prices of these raw materials and our inability to pass on increased costs or raw material to our customers, may adversely affect our sales and profitability. Further, in the event of any disruption in raw material supply in terms of requisite quantities and qualities our production schedule may also be adversely affected.

- 35. *Our future funds requirements, in the form of fresh issue of capital or securities and or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flows, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

36. We have in the last 12 months issued Equity Shares at a price which may be lower than the Issue Price.

Date of Allotment	No. of Equity Shares	Face Value (Rs.)	Issue Price (Rs.)	Reasons	Allottees
August 21, 2009	1,13,25,000	10	NIL	Bonus Issue	Shareholders of our Company as on date of allotment in the Bonus Issue
September 15, 2009	21,73,913	10	115	Preferential Allotment	Axis Bank Limited

For further details please refer to the chapter titled “Capital Structure” beginning at page 23 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

37. Any future issuance of Equity Shares by our Company or sale of the Equity Shares by any of its significant shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of our Equity Shares could dilute your shareholding. Any such future issuance of our Equity Shares or sales of our Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders may also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

38. Post this Issue, our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to hold majority shares in our Company.

Post this Issue, our Promoters and Promoters Group will own 62.21% of our fully diluted Equity Share capital. Accordingly, our Promoters will continue to have control over our business including matters relating to any sale of all or substantially all of our assets, the timing and distribution of dividends and the election, termination or appointment of our officers and directors. This control could delay, defer, or prevent a change in control in our Company, impede a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving our Company, or discourage potential acquirers from making an offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control over our Company even if it is in its best interest. Our Promoters may also influence our material policies in a matter that could conflict with the interests of our other shareholders.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

1. The market price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate due to the volatility of the Indian securities market.

There may not be an active or liquid market for our Equity Shares, which may cause the price of the Equity Shares to fall and may limit your ability to sell the Equity Shares. The Issue Price of the Equity Shares in this Issue will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLMs, and it may not necessarily be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after this Issue is complete. You may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price and, as a result, you may lose all or part of your investment. The price at which the Equity Shares will trade after this Issue will be determined by the marketplace and may be influenced by many factors, including:

- our financial results and the financial results of the companies in the businesses we operate in;
- the history of, and the prospects for, our business and the sectors and industries in which we compete;
- an assessment of our management, our past and present operations, and the prospects for, and timing of, our future revenues and cost structures;
- the present state of our development; and
- the valuation of publicly traded companies that are engaged in business activities similar to ours.

In addition, the Indian stock market has from time to time experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have affected the market prices for the securities of Indian companies. As a result, investors in the Equity Shares may experience a decrease in the value of the Equity Shares regardless of our operating performance or prospects. The market price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate due to the volatility of the Indian securities market and may be more volatile than the securities markets in other countries. Stock exchanges in India have, in the past, experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities.

The stock exchanges in India have experienced problems, including broker defaults and settlement delays, which, if were to continue or recur, could affect the market price and liquidity of the securities of Indian companies, including our Equity Shares. In addition, the governing bodies of the various Indian stock exchanges have from time to time imposed restrictions on trading in certain securities, limitations on price movements and margin requirements. Furthermore, from time to time disputes have occurred between listed companies and stock exchanges and other regulatory bodies, which in some cases may have had a negative effect on market sentiment.

2. Our business and activities will be regulated by the Competition Act, 2002 as and when it is notified. It is unclear as to how the said Competition Act and Competition Commission of India will affect industries in India.

The Parliament has enacted the Competition Act, 2002 for the purpose of preventing practices having an adverse effect on competition under the auspices of the Competition Commission of India, which has not yet come into force. Under the said Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action whether or not formal or informal which causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition is void and attracts substantial penalties. Any agreement inter alia which directly or indirectly determines purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, shares the market by way of geographical area or market or number of customers in the market is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect on competition. It is unclear as to how the said Competition Act and Competition Commission of India will affect industries in India.

3. Hostilities with neighbouring countries and civil unrest in India may have material adverse impact on the market for securities in India.

India has from time to time experienced instances of hostilities from neighbouring countries, including Pakistan and China. In recent years, military confrontations between India and Pakistan have occurred in Kashmir and along the India-Pakistan border, although the Governments of India and Pakistan have recently engaged in conciliatory efforts. Military activity or terrorist attacks like terror attacks on Mumbai in November 2008, in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult. Such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve a high degree of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest, could influence the Indian economy and could have material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies.

4. Political, Economic and Social developments in India and acts of violence or war could adversely affect our business.

Since 1991, the Government has pursued policies of economic liberalization, including significantly relaxing restrictions on the private sector. The new Government that has been formed as a result of general elections in India consists of a coalition of political parties. Any change in the economic policies by the new Government could change specific laws and policies affecting mining companies, pace of deregulation, foreign investment, currency exchange rates and other matters which could adversely affect the investment in our Equity Shares. Acts of violence, terrorist activity or war could affect the industrial and commercial operations in the country create a perception that investments in Indian companies involve a higher degree of risk which could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies.

5. A slowdown in economic growth in India and other unfavourable changes in political and economic factors may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

All our business facilities are located in India. Our Company, the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be adversely affected by fluctuations in foreign exchange rates and controls, interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other negative political developments like any abrupt change in the Central or any State Government wherever we have business interests, etc., economic developments like very high rate of inflation, slow down in growth, decrease in foreign investments, etc. or other developments in or affecting India. Particularly slow down in economic growth may make the Governments spend relatively less on agriculture and agricultural growth is also linked to overall economic growth, which may ultimately be unfavourable to the Company's business. During the past decade, the Government has pursued policies of economic liberalization, including significantly relaxing restrictions on the private sector. Nevertheless, the role of Government and State Governments in the Indian economy in relation to producers, consumers and regulators has remained significant. It cannot be assured that the liberalization policies will continue in future. For example, because of the change in Central Government certain liberalization policies like disinvestment in public sector enterprises, capital account convertibility etc. have been put on hold. The Government may also pursue other policies which could have a material adverse effect on our business. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting our business, suppliers, foreign investment, currency exchange rates and other matters affecting our business are also subject to change. A significant change in the Government's or Indian State Governments' economic liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India generally and our business and financial condition and prospects in particular.

6. Any downgrading of India's debt rating by an international rating agency could have an unfavorable impact on our business.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit rating for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have a material adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

7. India is vulnerable to natural disasters that could severely disrupt our normal operations of business and adversely affect our earnings.

India is susceptible to tsunamis and earthquakes. On December 26, 2004, Southeast Asia, including the Eastern coast of India, experienced a tsunami that caused significant loss of life and property damage. On January 26, 2001, the Kutch region in the State of Gujarat suffered a major earthquake causing significant loss of life and property. Our project sites are located in and around Mumbai and Bangalore. Though these are not prone areas in particular, there could arise force majeure events like earthquake, tsunami, flood or such other events beyond human control in any of the company's project areas that could have a material adverse impact on our operations, business and financial conditions. Further, occurrence of such an event could also affect our raw material suppliers or our customers, which would adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

8. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of equity shares of a listed company in India, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which any shareholder can sell equity shares at a particular point in time.

On listing of our Equity Shares, we would be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed by all stock exchanges in India, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The maximum movement allowed in the price of the Equity Shares before the circuit breaker is triggered is determined by the Stock Exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchange does not inform the listed company of the triggering point of the circuit breaker in effect from time to time, and may change it without the knowledge of the listed company. This circuit breaker limits the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance may be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time

Overview of the Indian Textile Industry

The Indian textile industry is one of the oldest and most significant industries in the country. In 2008-09, the textile sector accounted for nearly 4% of the GDP and 14% of the industrial production. It is also a significant foreign exchange earner, contributing to around 17% of India's total exports. The textile sector is also the second largest employment generator after agriculture, providing employment to 35 million people directly. Thus, the growth and all round development of this industry has a direct bearing on the improvement of the economy of the nation.

(Source: Ministry of Textiles, Annual Report – 2008-09)

The Indian textiles industry is extremely varied, with the hand-spun and handwoven sector at one end of the spectrum, and the capital intensive, sophisticated mill sector at the other. The decentralized powerlooms / hosiery and knitting sectors form the largest section of the Textiles Sector. The close linkage of the Industry to agriculture and the ancient culture, and traditions of the country make the Indian textiles sector unique in comparison with the textiles industry of other countries. This also provides the industry with the capacity to produce a variety of products suitable to the different market segments, both within and outside the country. The major sub-sectors that comprise the textiles sector include the organized Cotton / Man-Made Fibre Textiles Mill Industry, the Man-made Fibre / Filament Yarn Industry, the Wool and Woollen Textiles Industry, the Sericulture and Silk Textiles Industry, Handlooms, Handicrafts, the Jute and Jute Textiles Industry, and Textiles Exports.

The Government has also provided industry a conducive policy environment and initiated schemes which have facilitated the growth of the industry. The Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS), the "flagship" Scheme of the Ministry of Textiles, was launched on April 1, 1999, with the objective to make funds available to the domestic textiles industry to upgrade the technology of existing units, and also to set up new units with state-of-the-art technology to enhance their viability and competitiveness in the domestic and international markets. Initially, the term of the Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme was upto March 31, 2004, and it was extended till March 31, 2007. Due to overwhelming response from the industry, the Government decided to extend the Scheme upto the XIth Five Year Plan, and reframed some of the financial and operational parameters in respect of new loans. In the Xth Five Year Plan (2002-07), Rs. 1,270 crores was earmarked for the scheme. However, the net utilisation of funds was Rs. 2,044.17 crores. The modified techno-financial parameters of the Scheme has lead to the infusion of capital investment into the textiles sector, and has helped it to capitalize on the vibrant and expanding global and domestic markets, through technology upgradation, cost effectiveness, quality production, efficiency and global competitiveness.

Apart from TUFS, the Government has also taken various initiatives to ensure growth of the Industry:

- 100 per cent FDI allowed through the automatic route.
- De-reservation of readymade garments, hosiery and knitwear from the small-scale industries sector in end-2000.
- The Technology Mission on Cotton has increased cotton production and reduced contamination levels
- Implementation of Scheme For Integrated Textiles Parks (SITP), to provide the industry with world-class infrastructure facilities for setting up their textiles units.

Outlook for the Indian Textile Industry

Textile sector to witness investments worth Rs. 206 billion by 2011-12

CRISIL Research expects investments totaling to Rs.206 billion during the period 2009-10 to 2011-12 in textiles which includes segments such as Cotton yarn, Man Made Fibres (MMF), Ready-made garments (RMG) and weaving & processing. These investments are being supported by government incentives such as the TUFS and SITP scheme. Demand too is expected to recover after witnessing a sharp decline in 2008-09 following the worsening demand in key exporting destinations of US and Europe.

Nearly 50 per cent of these investments are projected to take place in the RMG segment with higher investments committed in the textile parks under SITP; while minimal investments of Rs 44 billion are expected in the spinning segment (owing to overcapacity). We foresee negligible investment within the MMF segment due to excess capacity build-up, slower demand and dropping operating rates. Our forecasts are based on our assessment of the current demand – supply situation and the availability of government support.

Ready Made Garments Market (RMG)

The Indian readymade garments (RMG) industry is highly fragmented in nature. There is intense competition among the players, both in the domestic as well as international (export) markets. However, the competition is not very intense in the designer wear and branded segments due to brand positioning and targeting the niche market. Thus, the garment industry can be classified into mass market and niche market. The competition in the exports market is more intense than in the domestic market, as Indian exporters face competition from low-cost producer countries like China, Pakistan, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, etc, in the mass market. In the niche market, India faces competition from Germany, Italy and France, among other countries. Thus, to sustain in the mass market, companies need to have high volumes in order to benefit from economies of scale thereby making them cost competitive while players in the niche market can sustain with high-end fashion designs.

According to CRISIL Research, Readymade Garments industry (domestic and exports) is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.4 per cent to touch Rs 2,209 billion in 2014, from Rs 1,615 billion in 2009.

Domestic Ready Made Garments market size to cross Rs 1,600 billion by 2014

India's domestic RMG sales is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.4 per cent to touch Rs 1,649 billion in 2014, from Rs 1155 billion in 2009, primarily due to increasing income levels. Also the rising preference for readymade garments vis-à-vis tailored garments will add to the opportunities for domestic apparel manufacturers. The growth in organised retailing, growing urbanisation and changing consumption pattern will further support the growth of the readymade garment industry.

Garment exports to cross Rs 550 billion ($ 12.0 bn) by 2014

CRISIL Research expects the exports to grow at a CAGR 4.0 percent (in rupee terms) from Rs.460 billion in 2009 to Rs.560 billion by 2014. With the revival expected in the economies of US and EU from 2010, exports are expected to pick up and grow at a CAGR of 4.6 per cent. However, India faces stiff competition from other countries having low cost of production, especially China, Bangladesh and Vietnam. Intense price competition will continue to exert pressure on margins of exporters.

OUR COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

Integrated Operations and Economies of Scale

Our Company's operations are vertically integrated across textile and garment manufacturing in India having presence across operations ranging from yarn dyeing to garment manufacturing. By virtue of our integrated operations encompassing designing of fabrics and garments, dyeing of yarns, weaving and processing of fabrics, manufacturing of garments, surface ornamentation and embellishments, our company derives benefits of economies of scale and quality control. Our Company's production capacity in each of its business processes provides advantages of economies of scale. We believe that our Company's high level of modernization, trained work force and managerial expertise results in a consistently high level of productivity while maintaining the quality of our products. Global buyers today are increasingly looking at consolidating their sourcing strategy. This would mean sourcing from fewer countries and fewer vendors. Our Company therefore, we believe, is a preferred vendor because of our size, integrated operations and modern facilities.

Diversified Domestic and International Customer base

As on December 31, 2009, our total clientele consisted of more than 700 customers. We believe that we enjoy the confidence of our customers because of our ability to offer in-house designs and samples, timely responsiveness, and capacity to cater to various order sizes. Our overseas customers include brands like Tommy Hilfiger, Charles Voge, FCUK, RIP CURL, All Saints, Simint, Colin's, Pepe Jeans and LAFUMA. The total sales from the above named overseas customers for the fiscal 2009 and for the nine months period ended December 31, 2009 amounted to Rs. 3,590.33 lacs and Rs. 3,720.83 lacs, respectively, which constituted 7.75% and 8.47% of the total sales and 26.38% and 49.44% of the total exports sales, respectively for the said period. Our export sales are invoiced in a mix of currencies, and because of such diversification we are able to reduce the adverse impact of fluctuation in any particular currency.

In-house Product designing and development

We believe that our ability to produce innovative designs is one of our major strengths and improves our competitiveness in the market. Our in-house designing team focuses on providing value-added design products by understanding the current fashion trends thereby helping us in procuring new as well as repeat orders. We have created a Style Lab & Textile Studio which comprises of the CAD/CAM software. As on July, 2009, we have an archive of over 100,000 designs in garments and more than 150,000 designs in woven fabrics, especially in the yarn dyed variety of fabrics. We also publish a half-yearly magazine showcasing more than 1,000 designs. We have developed 4 R&D centres for our yarn dyeing, fabric dyeing, weaving and garmenting operations each of which has a dedicated team for the same.

State of the art equipment and technology

Our management believes that our Company's manufacturing technology is on par with global competitors. We have developed competency in the processing of fabrics. This is evident from our ability to produce a variety of finishes like water / oil / mosquito repellent finishes to anti- bacterial / takara finish including stain free / U.V. protector / quick dry finish etc.

An experienced management team with proven project management and implementation skills

Our Management team consists of a mix of individuals with technical and commercial experience in the textile industry. We have implemented new textile projects which include processing, weaving and garmenting facilities.

Established Overseas Marketing Base

Our Company, in the year 2005, had set up a liaison office at Paris, France. This office had been established with a goal of building our international image, strengthening our foothold in the European market by being in proximity to our customers based in Europe and thus, enabling us to anticipate the latest fashion trends worldwide and serve our customers more effectively.

Process and Quality Certifications

Our company has always given priority to the processes followed and the quality of our products. In this endeavour we have obtained various quality certifications.

- Bureau of Indian Standards has issued IS/ISO 9001:2000 certification bearing no. QSC/L-7002712.1 dated January 01, 2008 to our weaving unit at Plot No. E- 33 for Quality Management System for manufacture and supply of Multifibre, Multicolour, Grey Fabric excluding designs as per ISO 9001-2000, valid upto October 28, 2010.
- Bureau of Indian Standards has issued IS/ISO 9001:2000 certification bearing no. WRO/QSC/L-7003433.0 dated March 18, 2009 to our Weaving House (Shirting Division) at Plot No. C-2 for Quality Management System Certification in respect of the products and/or services or processes, valid upto March 17, 2012.
- The certification body of TUV SUD Management Service GmbH Trading as TUV South Asia Private Limited has issued ISO 9001:2008 certification to our garment unit at Plot No. 26-A for application of Quality Management System for manufacture and supply of garments as per ISO 9001:2008 valid upto November 22, 2012.

- Our Bangalore unit mentioned above is also SA 8000:2008 certified whereby the certification body of TUV SUD Group has issued a certificate that the above garments manufacturing facility at Bangalore has established and applies a social accountability management system for manufacture and supply of ready made garments valid upto November 24, 2012.

Focus on garment business in overseas markets, especially female garments segment.

We believe that the readymade garment segment has grown rapidly over the period of last 10 years. According to CRISIL Research, Readymade Garments industry (domestic and exports) is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate of 6.4% to touch Rs. 2,209 billion in 2014 from Rs. 1,615 billion in 2009. Further, the Government is offering initiatives for the Textile Industry, such as, TUFS, Increase in Duty Drawback/DEPB and Reduction in Bank Interest Rate on Working Capital Loan. In order to derive benefit from these opportunities, we have drawn up a plan to enhance our garment manufacturing capacity from the current 36.00 lacs pieces per annum to 83.00 lacs pieces per annum by setting up of new garment manufacturing facility at MIDC, Tarapur Maharashtra which is one of the objects of the Issue. For further details on the project and its present status, please refer to chapter titled “Objects of this Issue” beginning on page 42 of this Red Herring Prospectus. We believe that the increased scale of operations would improve our ability to execute large size orders, thus becoming the vendor of choice for greater number of customers. We also believe that female garment as a segment is growing as compared to before on account of increasing proportion of working females to the total female population.

Focus on strengthening apparel design and product development processes

Design and related product development is an important focus area for our growth. Our strategy is to focus on the development of new designs and samples for our fabrics and garments. This activity is supported by our in-house design studio cum sampling unit which is equipped with design capabilities including softwares like CAD/CAM, thus enabling us to successfully convert our designs into fabrics and samples into final products. As of July, 2009, we had an archive of over 100,000 designs in garments and more than 150,000 in woven fabrics, especially in the yarn dyed variety of fabrics. We have developed competency in the processing of fabrics. This is evident from our ability to produce a variety of finishes like water / oil / mosquito repellent finishes to anti- bacterial / takara finish including stain free / U.V. protector / quick dry finish etc. Improved ability to create samples would help our customers in placing orders well in advance of a particular season. We plan to strengthen our capabilities in designing by continuously upgrading our design studios both in terms of human resources and technology. We plan to tap the hi-end readymade garment segment which will help us in maintaining higher sales realization for our final products.

Become a ‘Nominated Supplier’ to Global Customers

Over the recent past, a trend that is emerging is that large global customers looking at increasing the efficiency of their supply chain by consolidating their vendors and relying on large vendors who would have the capability to service large volume orders on time and within stringent quality parameters. Our Company has invested in modern technology and equipment across all areas of its operations. We have set up a CDR/CBR Unit at Tarapur, Maharashtra and are planning to set up new facility as well as expand some of our current facilities as detailed in the chapter titled “Objects of this Issue” on page no. 42 of this Red Herring Prospectus. Our Company, with its capacities in design and manufacturing and with quality control practices, makes such sourcing easier for its customers. Therefore, as part of its growth strategy, our Company is making conscious efforts to move up the value chain with its customers and become a ‘nominated supplier’ to some of the global brands.

Mine Global / Domestic Relationships for New and Existing Business

We believe that strong and sustainable relationships with our customers are the key to our success. We aim to continue to develop our relationships with our clients not only in terms of increased sales but also in terms of increased variety in products. We aim to achieve this by adding value to our client through quality, speed and reliability of our product delivery.

We also aim at developing relationships with new clients. This helps us in not only entering new markets but also in diversifying the sources of our revenues and reducing our dependence on a given set of customers.

Expanding Geographic Reach

We export a major component of our garments production worldwide across 25 countries and 5 continents. Europe contributed 77.79% of our total garment export sales nine months period ended December 31, 2009 and it remains a major market of our Company’s exports. Our Company has, over a period of time, explored opportunities in other international markets; both for growth as well as to de-risk itself from an over-dependence on a single export market. Our Company will continue exploring opportunities in various countries where it can supply value added textile products to enhance its geographic reach.

The domestic market also offers opportunities in term of sub-geographic penetration and product/market diversification. Our company will seek to grow its marketing reach domestically to explore hither to untapped markets and segments as part of its strategy to mitigate market risk and widen growth prospects.

Become an Employer of Choice

We place particular emphasis on attracting and retaining the best talent in the industry. We have implemented various human resource programmes at every level in the organisation, which has helped in developing and retaining our talent pool. We believe it is imperative that we have a well trained and experienced pool of resources in order to execute our global strategy and manage the substantial business and capacity growth that is expected. We intend to continue attracting the appropriate level of talent on a global basis through the right mix of recruitment and retention strategies.

Cost cutting through improved efficiency of our operations

We believe that as we grow and expand our operations, controlling costs becomes a critical factor for us in order to stay competitive. Our strategy to control our costs includes the following:

- Identify separate cost centers so as to monitor each of the major costs
- Benchmarking our costs with the international industry standards
- Controlling Raw Material costs through bulk purchases and negotiations with suppliers.
- Controlling consumption and wastage through effective supervision of the shop floor

Overview of the Indian Textile Industry

The Indian textile industry is one of the oldest and most significant industries in the country. In 2008-09, the textile sector accounted for nearly 4% of the GDP and 14% of the industrial production. It is also a significant foreign exchange earner, contributing to around 17% of India's total exports. The textile sector is also the second largest employment generator after agriculture, providing employment to 35 million people directly. Thus, the growth and all round development of this industry has a direct bearing on the improvement of the economy of the nation. (Source: Ministry of Textiles, Annual Report – 2008-09).

The Indian textiles industry is extremely varied, with the hand-spun and handwoven sector at one end of the spectrum, and the capital intensive, sophisticated mill sector at the other. The decentralized powerlooms / hosiery and knitting sectors form the largest section of the Textiles Sector. The close linkage of the Industry to agriculture and the ancient culture, and traditions of the country make the Indian textiles sector unique in comparison with the textiles industry of other countries. This also provides the industry with the capacity to produce a variety of products suitable to the different market segments, both within and outside the country. The major sub-sectors that comprise the textiles sector include the organized Cotton / Man-Made Fibre Textiles Mill Industry, the Man-made Fibre / Filament Yarn Industry, the Wool and Woollen Textiles Industry, the Sericulture and Silk Textiles Industry, Handlooms, Handicrafts, the Jute and Jute Textiles Industry, and Textiles Exports.

The Government has also provided industry a conducive policy environment and initiated schemes which have facilitated the growth of the industry. The Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS), the “flagship” Scheme of the Ministry of Textiles, was launched on April 1, 1999, with the objective to make funds available to the domestic textiles industry to upgrade the technology of existing units, and also to set up new units with state-of-the-art technology to enhance their viability and competitiveness in the domestic and international markets. Initially, the term of the Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme was upto March 31, 2004, and it was extended till March 31, 2007. Due to overwhelming response from the industry, the Government decided to extend the Scheme upto the XIth Five Year Plan, and reframed some of the financial and operational parameters in respect of new loans. In the Xth Five Year Plan (2002-07), Rs. 1,270 crores was earmarked for the scheme. However, the net utilisation of funds was Rs. 2,044.17 crores. The modified techno-financial parameters of the Scheme has lead to the infusion of capital investment into the textiles sector, and has helped it to capitalize on the vibrant and expanding global and domestic markets, through technology upgradation, cost effectiveness, quality production, efficiency and global competitiveness.

Apart from TUFS, the Government has also taken various initiatives to ensure growth of the Industry:

- 100 per cent FDI allowed through the automatic route.
- De-reservation of readymade garments, hosiery and knitwear from the small-scale industries sector in end-2000.
- The Technology Mission on Cotton has increased cotton production and reduced contamination levels
- Implementation of Scheme For Integrated Textiles Parks (SITP), to provide the industry with world-class infrastructure facilities for setting up their textiles units.

Textile Exports

India's textiles and clothing industry is one of the mainstays of national economy. It is also one of the largest contributing sectors of India's exports worldwide. At current prices the Indian textiles industry is pegged at US$ 52 billion, 64% of which services domestic demand. The textiles industry accounts for 14% of industrial production; employs 35 million people and accounts for nearly 12% share of the country's total exports basket.

Exports of textiles and clothing products from India have increased steadily over the last few years, particularly after 2004 when textiles exports quota were discontinued. India's textiles & clothing (T&C) export registered a robust growth of 25% in 2005-06, recording a growth of USD 3.5 billion in value terms thereby reaching a level of USD 17.52 billion and the growth continued in 2006-07 as T&C exports were at USD 19.15 billion recording an increase of 9.28% over the previous year. Though India's T&C exports in 2007-08 were badly affected by strong appreciation of the Indian rupee against the US dollar, exports at USD 22.13 billion still managed to record a healthy growth of 15.59% in US dollar terms over 2006-07. Readymade Garments accounts for almost 42% of the total textiles exports. Apparel and cotton textiles products together contribute nearly 72% of the total textiles exports. (Source: Ministry of Textiles, Annual Report – 2008-09)

The export basket consists of wide range of items comprising of readymade garments, cotton textiles, handloom textiles, man-made fibre textiles, wool and woollen goods, silk, jute and handicrafts including carpets.. India's textile products, including handlooms and handicrafts, are exported to more than a hundred countries. However, the USA and the EU, account for about two-third of India's textiles exports. The other major export destinations are Canada, U.A.E., Japan, Saudi Arabia, Republic of Korea, Bangladesh and Turkey.

In the liberalized post-quota period, India has emerged as a major sourcing destination for new buyers. As a measure of growing interest in the Indian textiles and clothing sector a number of buyers opened their sourcing/liaison office in India. Commercially, the retailers across the world are looking for options of increasing their sourcing from the Indian markets. Indian manufacturers are also pro-actively working towards enhancing their capacities to fulfil this increased demand.

The European Union is the single largest market for India's textiles products, accounting for 34% of India's total textiles exports, followed by USA which accounts for nearly 25%. Other important countries are the UAE, Saudi Arabia, Canada, Bangladesh, China, Turkey and Japan.

India ranks 3rd in the EU markets of textiles and clothing after China and Turkey, EU's imports of textiles and clothing from India amounted to USD 9.08 billion during calendar year 2008 registering a growth of about 6.42%.

The USA is India's single largest market. During the calendar year 2008, India's exports of textiles and clothing to the US amounted to USD 5.42 billion compared to USD 5.45 billion in the calendar year 2007.

Outlook for the Indian Textile Industry

Textile sector to witness investments worth Rs. 206 billion by 2011-12

CRISIL Research expects investments totaling to Rs.206 billion during the period 2009-10 to 2011-12 in textiles which includes segments such as Cotton yarn, Man Made Fibres (MMF), Ready-made garments (RMG) and weaving & processing. These investments are being supported by government incentives such as the TUFs and SITP scheme. Demand too is expected to recover after witnessing a sharp decline in 2008-09 following the worsening demand in key exporting destinations of US and Europe.

Nearly 50 per cent of these investments are projected to take place in the RMG segment with higher investments committed in the textile parks under SITP; while minimal investments of Rs 44 billion are expected in the spinning segment (owing to overcapacity). We foresee negligible investment within the MMF segment due to excess capacity build-up, slower demand and dropping operating rates. Our forecasts are based on our assessment of the current demand – supply situation and the availability of government support.

Ready Made Garments Market (RMG)

The Indian readymade garments (RMG) industry is highly fragmented in nature. There is intense competition among the players, both in the domestic as well as international (export) markets. However, the competition is not very intense in the designer wear and branded segments due to brand positioning and targeting the niche market. Thus, the garment industry can be classified into mass market and niche market. The competition in the exports market is more intense than in the domestic market, as Indian exporters face competition from low-cost producer countries like China, Pakistan, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, etc, in the mass market. In the niche market, India faces competition from Germany, Italy and France, among other countries. Thus, to sustain in the mass market, companies need to have high volumes in order to benefit from economies of scale thereby making them cost competitive while players in the niche market can sustain with high-end fashion designs.

According to CRISIL Research, Readymade Garments industry (domestic and exports) is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.4 per cent to touch Rs 2,209 billion in 2014, from Rs 1,615 billion in 2009.

Broad trends in the Ready Made Garments segment

Domestic Ready Made Garments market size to cross Rs 1,600 billion by 2014

India's domestic RMG sales is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.4 per cent to touch Rs 1,649 billion in 2014, from Rs 1155 billion in 2009, primarily due to increasing income levels. Also the rising preference for readymade garments vis-à-vis tailored garments will add to the opportunities for domestic apparel manufacturers. The growth in organised retailing, growing urbanisation and changing consumption pattern will further support the growth of the readymade garment industry.

Garment exports to cross Rs 550 billion ($12.0 bn) by 2014

CRISIL Research expects the exports to grow at a CAGR 4.0 percent (in rupee terms) from Rs.460 billion in 2009 to Rs.560 billion by 2014. With the revival expected in the economies of US and EU from 2010, exports are expected to pick up and grow at a CAGR of 4.6 per cent. However, India faces stiff competition from other countries having low cost of production, especially China, Bangladesh and Vietnam. Intense price competition will continue to exert pressure on margins of exporters.

Growth Factors for the Ready Made Garments segment

• Domestic Apparel Market

Rising income levels – key driver for the domestic apparel market

Rising incomes have resulted in higher disposable incomes, thereby enhancing the purchasing power of the average consumer. Also the trend of rising preference for readymade garments vis-à-vis tailored garments, the growing liking for branded apparels and the increasing penetration of organised retail have supported the growth of the domestic readymade garments industry.

Increasing retail penetration - driving sales of apparels

India's organised retail is expected to grow by 15-20 per cent per annum in the next 5-6 years. Rising disposable incomes, demographic changes, change in the perception of branded products and growing number of retail malls and availability of cheap finance are providing a fillip to the industry. Within the retail market, apparels, footwear and consumer durables are segments with highest organised retail penetration. This vertical also has the highest brand penetration. Of the organised retail of Rs 852 billion, clothing and textiles have the largest share at 27 per cent.

Growing share of private labels

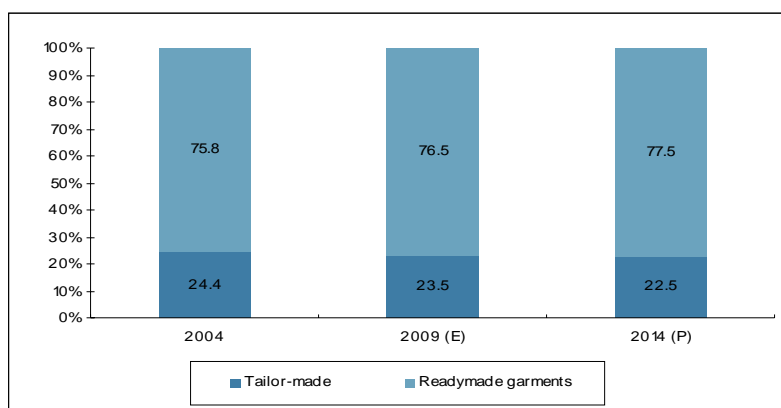

Organised retailers, who initially stored national brands for attracting footfalls and generating a stable revenue stream, have now begun to increase the shelf-space for their in-store labels, also known as private labels. These own-labelled garments are manufactured either by the retailer himself or on a job-work basis. This helps attract footfalls over the years, which is important, especially for formats such as departmental stores.

Increasing proportion of working females

The proportion of working females to the total female population is growing. A working female in the house would mean higher disposable income for the entire household. This translates into higher consumption expenditure, including clothing and apparel. The working females also purchase additional garments in the form of formal dresses or office-wear, besides regular household-wear and leisure-wear.

Rising preference for ready-to-wear apparels against tailored garments

The consumption pattern of Indians is shifting gradually from tailor-made garments (stitched by a tailor out of fabrics or cut-piece purchased/chosen by the customer) to ready-to-wear garments. The transition is primarily driven by the increasing availability of RMG, increasing number of shopping malls. Furthermore, the consumers' aspiration to own branded garments has also contributed to the shift from tailor-made garments to ready-to-wear apparel.

• Export Apparel Market

Export market expected to revive post 2010

CRISIL Research expects the exports to grow at a CAGR 4.6 percent (in dollar terms) from $ 9.6 billion in 2009 to $12 billion by 2014. Post 2009, with the revival expected in the economies of US and EU, exports are expected to pick up and grow at a CAGR of 4.6 per cent.

Exports of Ready Made Garments

(Source: CRISIL Research Readymade Garments Annual Review –2009)

Outsourcing by major international names facilitates India's garment exports growth

The abolition of quota restrictions has opened the doors of outsourcing opportunities for India. Big international players such as Wal-Mart, JC Penney, Banana Republic, Marks and Spencer, Nike, Lee, and DKNY have identified India as one of the outsourcing destinations as India is one among the low cost garment producers. Besides, these players deal in large volumes which offer opportunities for Indian exporters. Off late, these international players are focussing on vendor consolidation and hence prefer placing orders with large-medium export houses.

Larger scale required in garment exports segment

The removal of quotas in 2005 has favoured larger players who can build efficiency in the supply chain. The weaving and processing segment continue to be largely fragmented. This has resulted in large garment exporters importing fabrics. In this scenario, exporters having integrated operations with in house weaving and processing facilities would have a better competitive position vis-à-vis those which do not.

Outlook on garment exports to the EU-27

CRISIL Research expects India's exports to EU to grow from 4.0 euro billion in 2009 to 5.1 euro billion – a CAGR of 5 per cent. India's market share which is currently at 3.6 percent is expected to increase to 3.9 percent by 2014.

Outlook on garment exports to the US

India's exports to US declined by 7 percent in 2009 over 2008. CRISIL Research expects India's exports to revive post 2009. Going forward, India's exports to US are expected to grow from $2.8 billion in 2009 to $3.5 billion in 2014 – a CAGR of 4.5 per cent. India's market share which is currently at 4.1 percent in 2009 is expected to increase to 4.3 percent by 2014. This is on account of increased competition from low cost apparel producers like Bangladesh, and China. India's average realization $3.3 is higher when compared to Bangladesh ($2.2) and China ($3.2).

Analysis of Exports of Readymade Garments from India

Ready made garments account for around 43 per cent of the total textile exports of the country in 2007-08. For the year 2008-09, RMG exports from India are expected to touch Rs.427 billion.

The export market can be subdivided on the basis of raw material from which the apparel is manufactured into RMG made from cotton, man-made fibres, silk wool and other materials. The largest segment in the export market is the RMG made from cotton; the exports made from segment amounted to Rs. 336 billion out of total garment exports of Rs.427 billion. Thus, this segment accounts for nearly 80 percent of apparel exports from India..

Country Wise analysis

USA holds around 32 per cent share in the RMG exports of the country at Rs.134 bn. in 2008 whereas EU holds around 59 per cent share. The other important countries where Indian RMG exports have a wide presence are Saudi Arabia, UAE, Japan, China etc. As per Office of Textiles and Apparels (OTEXA), India's share in total US apparel imports in the calendar year 2008 was at 4.3 per cent (value terms). For the period Jan-May 2009, this share has increased to 5.7 per cent from 5.5 percent for the same period in 2008. For the comparable period, China holds around 31.5 per cent share in the total US apparel imports.

Distribution channels in Indian RMG industry

A distribution channel is a network of outlets through which a product is sold. The company can sell its products through one or more distribution channels. The selection of a distribution channel or channels is one of the management strategies on which the costs and revenues of the company are dependent. Apparel manufacturers either sell their garments in India or export them.

Integrated Operations and Economies of Scale

Our Company's operations are vertically integrated across textile and garment manufacturing in India having presence across operations ranging from yarn dyeing to garment manufacturing. By virtue of our integrated operations encompassing designing of fabrics and garments, dyeing of yarns, weaving and processing of fabrics, manufacturing of garments, surface ornamentation and embellishments, our company derives benefits of economies of scale and quality control. This along with our wide product range makes our Company a preferred partner for sourcing of textile goods.

Our Company's production capacity in each of its business processes provides advantages of economies of scale. The large volumes ensure bulk quantity discounts on purchases and wide spread of overheads result in reduced cost per unit. We believe that our Company's high level of modernization, trained work force and managerial expertise results in a consistently high level of productivity while maintaining the quality of our products.

Global buyers today are increasingly looking at consolidating their sourcing strategy. This would mean sourcing from fewer countries and fewer vendors. Our Company therefore, we believe, is a preferred vendor because of our size, integrated operations and modern facilities.

Diversified Domestic and International Customer base

We have over two decades of experience in the textile industry and over this period we have successfully developed long standing relations with our overseas and domestic customers for our fabrics and garments. As on December 31, 2009, our total clientele consisted of more than 700 customers. We believe that we enjoy the confidence of our customers because of our ability to offer in-house designs and samples, timely responsiveness, and capacity to cater to various order sizes.

Our overseas customers include brands like Tommy Hilfiger, Charles Voegelé, FCUK, RIP CURL, All Saints, Simint, Colin's, Pepe Jeans and LAFUMA.. The total sales from the above named overseas customers for the fiscal 2009 and for the nine months period ended December 31, 2009 amounted to Rs. 3,590.33 lacs and Rs. 3,720.83 lacs, respectively, which constituted 7.75% and 8.47% of the total sales and 26.38% and 49.44% of the total exports sales, respectively for the said period. In the domestic market our customers include Aditya Birla Nuvo (manufacturers of brands like Louis Phillipe, Van Heusen, Peter England, Allen Solly), Pantaloon Retail, ITC (manufacturer of brand Wills LifeStyle), Turtle.

In-house Product designing and development

Product design, development and sampling form an integral part of our Company's operations. It helps us in converting an existing inquiry into an order for our products. We believe that our ability to produce innovative designs is one of our major strengths and improves our competitiveness in the market. Our in-house designing team focuses on providing value-added design products by understanding the current fashion trends thereby helping us in procuring new as well as repeat orders. We have created a Style Lab & Textile Studio which comprises of the CAD/CAM software. As on July, 2009, we had an archive of over 100,000 designs in garments and more than 150,000 designs in woven fabrics, especially in the yarn dyed variety of fabrics. We also publish a half-yearly magazine showcasing more than 1,000 designs.

With our designing and sampling capacity, we have the capability to serve customers who launch upto 12 fashion seasons globally every year. The design and sampling team continuously interacts with the clients to understand their requirements and provides the designs based on their requirements. Our design team offers a diverse product range of garmenting solutions including shirts, ladies tops, dresses, skirts, kids wear, sports wear and jeans wear using various types of fabric enabling us to provide a range of garments to our customers.

With a view to provide better quality products to our domestic and international customers, our company focuses on product development. We have developed 4 R&D centres for our yarn dyeing, fabric dyeing, weaving and garmenting operations each of which has a dedicated team for the same. Further, it has also been our endeavour to continuously upgrade and improve our production processes which have resulted in quality assurance at each level of production.

State of the art equipment and technology

Our Company has invested in modern technology and equipment across all areas of its operations. Our management believes that our Company's manufacturing technology is on par with global competitors.

We have developed competency in the processing of fabrics. This is evident from our ability to produce a variety of finishes like water / oil / mosquito repellent finishes to anti- bacterial / takara finish including stain free / U.V. protector / quick dry finish etc.

In our effort to keep abreast with the latest technology and adapt to changes taking place in our business, our senior management team attends international fairs, seminars & expositions and regularly interacts with machinery suppliers.

An experienced management team with proven project management and implementation skills

Our Management team consists of a mix of individuals with technical and commercial experience in the textile industry. We have implemented new textile projects which include processing, weaving and garmenting facilities. We believe this is one of our key competitive strengths in view of our current scale of operations as well as size of operations that we are planning to achieve. The same can be illustrated from the fact that we have consistently commissioned various units over the past few years.

Established Overseas Marketing Base

Our Company, in the year 2005, had set up a liaison office at Paris, France. This office had been established with a goal of building our international image, strengthening our foothold in the European market by being in proximity to our customers based in Europe and thus, enabling us to anticipate the latest fashion trends worldwide and serve our customers more effectively. This setup has helped us in interacting with our European customers and in showcasing our latest product offerings and soliciting new customers. This has also been instrumental in increasing our exports to Europe from Rs. 4,981.63 lacs in FY 2006 to Rs. 11,381.21 lacs in FY 2009 and Rs. 5,854.75 lacs for the nine month period ended December 31, 2009.

Process and Quality Certifications

Our company has always given priority to the processes followed and the quality of our products. In this endeavour we have obtained various quality certifications.

- Bureau of Indian Standards has issued IS/ISO 9001:2000 certification bearing no. QSC/L-7002712.1 dated January 01, 2008 to our weaving unit at Plot No. E- 33 for Quality Management System for manufacture and supply of Multifibre, Multicolour, Grey Fabric excluding designs as per ISO 9001 -2000, valid upto October 28, 2010.
- Bureau of Indian Standards has issued IS/ISO 9001:2000 certification bearing no. - Our Bangalore unit mentioned above is also SA 8000:2008 certified whereby the certification body of TUV SUD Group has issued a certificate that the above garments manufacturing facility at Bangalore has established and applies a social accountability management system for manufacture and supply of ready made garments valid upto November 24, 2012.

OUR STRATEGY

Focus on garment business in overseas markets, especially female garments segment.

We believe that the readymade garment segment has grown rapidly over the period of last 10 years. According to CRISIL Research, Readymade Garments industry (domestic and exports) is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate of 6.4% to touch Rs. 2,209 billion in 2014 from Rs. 1,615 billion in 2009. Further, the Government is offering initiatives for the Textile Industry, such as, TUFS, Increase in Duty Drawback/DEPB and Reduction in Bank Interest Rate on Working Capital Loan. In order to derive benefit from these opportunities, we have drawn up a plan to enhance our garment manufacturing capacity from the current 36.00 lacs pieces per annum to 83.00 lacs pieces per annum by setting up of new garment manufacturing facility at MIDC, Tarapur Maharashtra which is one of the objects of the Issue. For further details on the project and its present status, please refer to chapter titled “Objects of this Issue” beginning on page 42 of this Red Herring Prospectus. We believe that the increased scale of operations would improve our ability to execute large size orders, thus becoming the vendor of choice for greater number of customers. According to CRISIL Research, female garment as a segment is growing as compared to before on account of increasing proportion of working females to the total female population.

Over the last three years we have diversified into women’s wear in a planned manner. Our designing skills have helped us in transforming our garments business from male centric to a combination of both and we intend to further implement this strategy.

Focus on strengthening apparel design and product development processes

Design and related product development is an important focus area for our growth. Our strategy is to focus on the development of new designs and samples for our fabrics and garments. This activity is supported by our in-house design studio cum sampling unit which is equipped with design capabilities including softwares like CAD/CAM, thus enabling us to successfully convert our designs into fabrics and samples into final products. As of July, 2009, we had an archive of over 100,000 designs in garments and more than 150,000 in woven fabrics, especially in the yarn dyed variety of fabrics. We have developed competency in the processing of fabrics. This is evident from our ability to produce a variety of finishes like water / oil / mosquito repellent finishes to anti- bacterial / takara finish including stain free / U.V. protector / quick dry finish etc. Improved ability to create samples would help our customers in placing orders well in advance of a particular season. We plan to strengthen our capabilities in designing by continuously upgrading our design studios both in terms of human resources and technology. We plan to tap the hi-end readymade garment segment which will help us in maintaining higher sales realization for our final products.

While our focus would continue to be the casual wear segment, we also plan to expand into other segments where we can provide value added products. Our strategy would be to identify potential areas for expansion like formal wear, linen wear etc. Subsequent to the implementation of our ammonia processing plant we plan to enter the high-end formal wear segment. Our expansion into new products would benefit us in terms of additional and diversified sources of revenue.

Become a ‘Nominated Supplier’ to Global Customers

Over the recent past, a trend that is emerging is that large global customers looking at increasing the efficiency of their supply chain by consolidating their vendors and relying on large vendors who would have the capability to service large volume orders on time and within stringent quality parameters. Our Company has invested in modern technology and equipment across all areas of its operations. We have set up a CDR/CBR Unit at Tarapur, Maharashtra and are planning to set up new facility as well as expand some of our current facilities as detailed in the chapter titled “Objects of this Issue” on page no. 42 of this Red Herring Prospectus. We believe that with our expanded capacity in design and manufacturing and with our quality control processes we will be able to deliver timely orders to our customers without compromising on the quality. We offer variety of products ranging from yarn to finished fabric. Therefore, as part of its growth strategy, our Company plans to leverage on the above mentioned factors and is also making conscious efforts to move up the value chain with its customers and become a 'nominated supplier' to some of the global brands.

Mine Global / Domestic Relationships for New and Existing Business

We believe that strong and sustainable relationships with our customers are the key to our success. We aim to continue to develop our relationships with our clients not only in terms of increased sales but also in terms of increased variety in products. We aim to achieve this by adding value to our client through quality, speed and reliability of our product delivery.

We also aim at developing relationships with new clients. This helps us in not only entering new markets but also in diversifying the sources of our revenues and reducing our dependence on a given set of customers.

As a measure of the said strategy we plan to expand our business in domestic as well as overseas market through our marketing offices in India and abroad.

Expanding Geographic Reach

We export a major component of our garments production worldwide across 25 countries and 5 continents.

Europe contributed 77.79% of our total export sales of garments for the nine month period ended December 31, 2009 and it remains a major market of our Company's exports. Our Company has, over a period of time, explored opportunities in other international markets; both for growth as well as to de-risk itself from an over-dependence on a single export market.

Our Company will continue exploring opportunities in various countries where it can supply value added textile products to enhance its geographic reach.

The domestic market also offers opportunities in term of sub-geographic penetration and product/market diversification. Our company will seek to grow its marketing reach domestically to explore hitherto untapped markets and segments as part of its strategy to mitigate market risk and widen growth prospects.

Become an Employer of Choice

We place particular emphasis on attracting and retaining the best talent in the industry. We have implemented various human resource programmes at every level in the organisation, which has helped in developing and retaining our talent pool. We believe it is imperative that we have a well trained and experienced pool of resources in order to execute our global strategy and manage the substantial business and capacity growth that is expected. We intend to continue attracting the appropriate level of talent on a global basis through the right mix of recruitment and retention strategies.

Cost cutting through improved efficiency of our operations

We believe that as we grow and expand our operations, controlling costs becomes a critical factor for us in order to stay competitive. Our strategy to control our costs includes the following:

- Identify separate cost centers so as to monitor each of the major costs
- Benchmarking our costs with the international industry standards
- Controlling Raw Material costs through bulk purchases and negotiations with suppliers.
- Controlling consumption and wastage through effective supervision of the shop floor

OUR BUSINESS PROCESSES

The entire supply chain can be broadly classified into the following four segments:

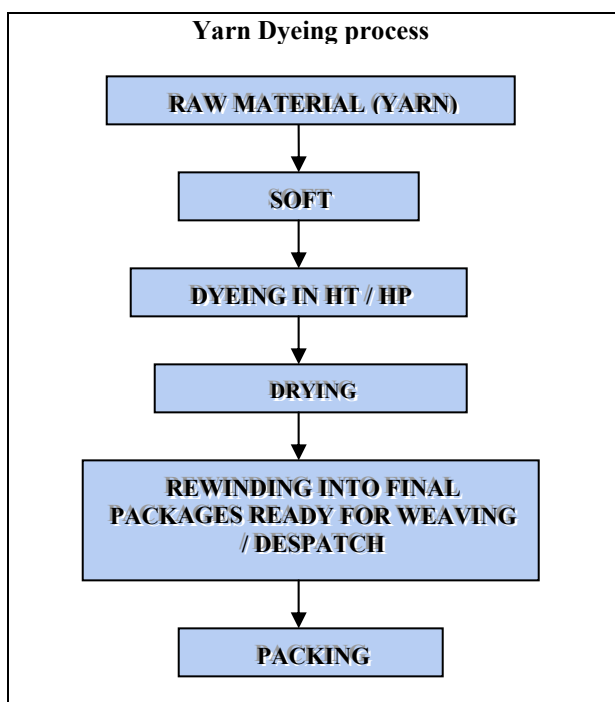

- a) Yarn Dyeing
- b) Weaving
- c) Fabric processing which includes dyeing, washing, bleaching etc.
- d) Production of Garments

Apart from the main activities mentioned above, parallel activities which are critical for our manufacturing includes yarn dyeing, design and sampling, embroidery, client approvals and quality checks. The span of our processes includes yarn dyeing, textile design, weaving (shirting), dyeing and processing, garments designing, manufacturing, finishing and garments exporting.

a. Yarn Dyeing

Yarn is a major raw material and is the prime requirement for manufacturing a variety of fabrics and garments. The machines installed by our Company can serve a variety of yarn qualities such as 100% cotton, cotton/polyester blends, 100% Polyester filament yarns, texturised yarn, viscose, cotton viscose blends and other yarns.

The entire Yarn Dyeing process can be summarized as under:

Raw Material Procurement:

The raw material for weaving is readily available and is procured from the spinning mills across the country with a delivery time of 7-10 days.

Winding

This process is important to achieve a high level of colour variation consistency in the yarn. A high level of humidity is maintained in the winding room which helps in reducing the hairiness of yarn and helps in minimizing yarn breakage.

Dyeing in HT / HP vessels

We have installed machines with technology to ensure consistency in the quality of dyeing. Machines installed have high temperature and high pressure vessel of various capacities with Air Pad system which enables to maintain the same liquor ratio even if the machines are used for reduced capacity which will reduce the cost of production. Fully automatic machines installed are equipped with very high precision turbo pumps, which ensures very precise flow rate of liquor across the yarn package.

Drying

Excess water is removed from the yarn by the hydro extractor by means of centrifugal action. After hydro extraction, approximately 50-55% of water still remains in the yarn package. This is followed by Radio Frequency drying which reduces the moisture to the desired level.

Preparatory

This process makes the yarn ready for weaving. Both dyed as well as greige yarns are used as per the requirements of the design and parameters of fabric. Based on the production schedule, three kinds of machines can be used which includes, one direct warping machine and two sectional warping machines. This combination gives flexibility in use of any type of yarn for warping

For the next operation of sizing, both beam to beam sizing as well as beam from the direct warping is considered which will give additional capacity to run single yarn pattern beam with sizing.

b. Weaving

The entire Weaving process can be summarized as under:

Greige Yarn on Cones

Normally yarn received for weaving is in cone form either from ring spinning or from open end spinning in single or double fold as required. The yarn used for weaving is categorized into:

- a. Warp yarn
- b. Weft yarn

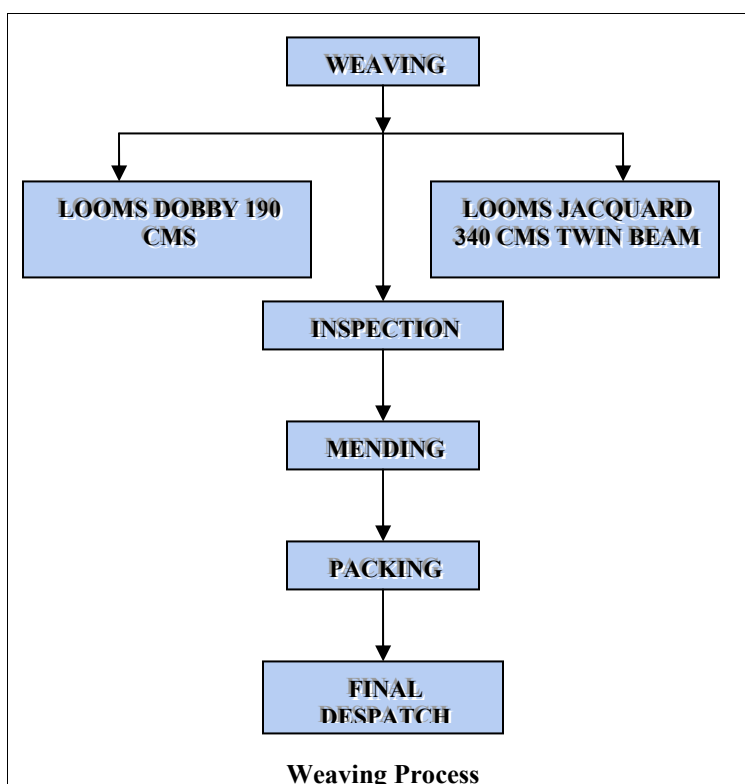

Normally for Weaving, yarn used as warp should have higher Counter Strength Product (CSP) and further sized to withstand stress and strains exerted during Weaving Operations. The Weft yarn is directly used on weaving machines and in some cases, if required, is rewound so as to enhance its performance in weaving.

Warping on Sectional / Direct Warping

The warp yarn is required to be presented into sheet form to the weaving machines. In warping, the individual cones are put into creel (the number of cones depends upon fabric construction) and yarn from individual cones is pulled together in sheet form, wound on a barrel called warping beams (for Direct warping) or on weaving beams (for Sectional Warping). Normally if warp sheet is with patterns of different colored yarns, it is processed on sectional warping machine.

Sizing of yarn in set/Beam to beam position

The object of sizing is to improve the strength of yarn by chemically binding the fibers with each other and also improve upon its friction resistance capacity by chemically coating the surface of yarn/fibres.

Weaving is basically interlacing of two sets i.e. warp and weft threads in desired sequence and pattern. To obtain this interlacement, warp yarn sheet is bifurcated & opened in form of two layers/sheet and weft thread is inserted between the so opened, two warp sheets by means of a suitable carrier i.e. Shuttle, Projectile, Rapier, Air current, Water current, etc., depending upon the type of the weaving machines.

During subsequent cycle, the sheet forming upper layer is lowered and made to form lower layer and vis-à-vis for opposite sheet. Thus the interlacement is formed. In order to get this sheet separation and their up and down movement, each warp thread is to be drawn through heads, reeds and drop pins. This operation is called “Drawing - in”.

The drawn Weavers Beams are fixed on weaving machines, threads are tied and held shafts are coupled. This operation is called Beam Gaiting. If undrawn warp threads are directly knotted to the threads of finished beams, it is called Knotting. These operations are essential because normally weavers beam can carry only certain length of warp sheets on it and when so woven, whole length is converted to the fabric by weaving machine.

We are using two types of Shuttle less weaving Looms i.e. Air jet and Rapier

Air jet Looms

In these types of looms the weft insertion is done with the help of compressed air. A very high weft insertion rate up to 1800 meter per minute is achieved. Compared to rapier and projectile looms, these looms are highly productive and suitable for producing sheeting fabrics up to 600 Thread count

Rapier Looms

In this case, weft insertion is achieved with the help of rapiers. These looms are versatile and can be suitable for weaving all types of fabrics, including fabrics of different designs. Rate of weft insertion is 900 to 1300 meter /minute. These looms are mainly used for yarn dyed fabrics of size upto 160 cms.

Inspection and Quality Checks

The woven fabric wound on a cloth roll is taken out from weaving machines at certain intervals and checked on inspection machines for possibilities of any weaving fault. Mending operations ensure that the loose threads if any left out at fabric body / selvedge are clipped off to improve the overall quality and look of the fabric.

c. Fabric Processing

Singeing & Desizing

Under Singeing, the fabric is run on gas flame at a speed of about 120 Mtrs /min and the excess protruding fibres on the surface of fabrics are burnt during this process. During desizing the fabrics are impregnated with enzyme solution to remove chemicals (used prior to weaving during sizing process). This fabric is then kept on rotating batches for a period of 6 to 8 hours for effective removal of sizing chemicals.

Open width scouring and bleaching

Desized fabrics are first washed in water and then treated for scouring and bleaching with caustic soda, good detergent /soap and peroxide with stabilizer. Fabric is then passed through steamer so that reaction takes place with impurities and they are fully dissolved. The fabrics so washed are then clean and absorbent. This process is very important for obtaining good quality results in dyeing and printing.

Open-width Merceriser

Fabrics are treated on Merceriser to obtain luster for good appearance and dye absorbency. There are also additional benefits like savings on dyeing cost and improvement in the strength of fabrics.

Dyeing

Fabrics are normally dyed with reactive dyestuffs on PAD/BATCH or PAD / DRY processes and washed subsequently. PAD/BATCH & PAD / DRY Processes are the widely accepted process for dyeing cotton fabrics with pigments, vat dyestuffs and certain reactive dyestuffs.

Printing

In order to obtain combination of different designs and colors on fabrics, printing is done. Designs are prepared with the help of CAD - CAM design equipments and then the designs are engraved on rotary screens using photo exposure. They are then checked for any defects. If the designs are to be printed using Flat Bed Screen printing systems, screens are prepared using bolting cloths separately for each matching and fixed on frame for use on flat Bed Screen printing machine.

Colour Kitchen for printing

Colour paste used for printing is prepared in a laboratory called “Colour Kitchen”. Dyestuff solution for each dye shade is prepared separately. Also thickeners / binders solutions are prepared separately and then are mixed with individual dyestuff solutions prior to printing.

Print Dryer and Steamer

The Rotary screen-printing machine is connected to dryer in continuous manner so that wet fabric is immediately dried after printing. Drying is done by either using steam or heated thermic oil by means of heat exchangers located near fans of dryer. After printing, colors are fixed on the fabric by using saturated steam.

Soaper and Dryer

Loose colour remaining on fabrics after printing has to be washed out to achieve proper colour consistency in the prints, which is done by soaping the cloth followed by washing and drying it in continuous machine.

Finishing

Finishing is done to keep control on width, bow, skew, shrinkage and finish of the fabric. Getting the right finish is very important from the end user perspective. This is one of the important value-additions which we provide in the fabrics we manufacture. The penultimate finishing of fabric is always done on a stenter. The cloth to be finished passes through the padder, where finishing chemicals are added and goes through bow and weft correction device before entering the drying chamber.

Sanforising is the last process in the fabric finishing where the warp wise and weft wise shrinkage is controlled. Cloth having undergone this process would not shrink abnormally further after repeated washes thereby maintaining the dimensional stability of the fabric.

d. Garment Production

Finished fabric is utilized for apparel manufacturing purpose. The various activities are highly labour intensive as majority of them cannot be completely automated. In the stitching section, the garment is usually assembled using the Progressive Bundle System (PBS). In PBS, the work is delivered to individual work stations from the cutting department in bundles. Sewing machine operators then process or sew them in batches i.e. first few operation are joining the different parts together and then further amendments related to design are carried out. The supervisors direct and balance the line activities and check the quality. This involves large work in progress (WIP) inventories and minimal flexibility. For faster apparel production, use of unit production system which reduces the buffer sizes between the operations or modular assembly systems, allow a small group of sewing operators to assemble the entire garment.

Assembly & Designing

The fabric manufactured / procured is assembled in the storage department. Garmenting starts with the design of the garment to be made (usually on the paper called specs). Patterns (usually made up of thicker and stronger paper) are made from the design which is then used to cut the fabric (cutting usually happens in the form of layers). An efficient layout of the patterns on the layers of fabric is crucial for reducing the wastage of material. CAD systems are used for pattern layout and are integrated together with cutting systems.

Sampling

Our Company has a production cum sampling unit at Sewree, Mumbai wherein we have all the facilities like CAD, stitching, embroidery etc. to produce garment samples as per designs developed by our design studio. In the initial stages of the order, the design and sampling department continuously interacts with the buyers till the sample is approved. In our dedicated sampling unit, garment samples are made, remade, design changes are incorporated till the customer finally approves the garment sample.

Cutting Department

The fabric is cut into different parts of a garment. To ensure minimum wastage we use tools such as CAD and others for the process. The Production Planning and Control department uses CAD and other design tools, issues draft or diagram of how different patterns should be placed on to the layer. The cutting department based on their experience and expertise either accepts the proposed average or sometimes gives a better average. The department makes production plan for all cutting stations based on article or style requested. Thereafter, the cut parts of the garment are bundled together.

Stitching Department

The department is responsible for stitching different parts of garment together. The process takes place in the assembly line system. The assembly line system is the set of many different stitching machines each for a specific purpose. These machines are arranged in an orderly fashion depending on how different parts of garment should be attached. Assembly line method is used for large production. Production Planning and Control decides on the article or style to be produced with quantity. The stitching department makes necessary production planning i.e. time line in accordance with each article. The stitching process is the most time consuming and labour intensive process in the entire garment production. The planning is done weekly.

Finishing and Packaging Department

This is final stage before the garment is ready to be shipped. As the garment is ready, it requires a series of quality checks. The garment goes through the quality checks like colour test, washing test, stitching test etc. After which it is steam pressed, labeled, packed into garment bags and finally, put into the cartons. Once all cartons are packed and labeled, external quality check takes place and goods are shipped. The PPC department gives the details of the Purchase Order to be finished, packed and dispatched

Production Planning and Control (PPC) Department

The department is responsible for making plans for the entire organization i.e. all the departments. PPC being in the centre of all departments also controls their functionality. The PPC sends production plan to different departments on weekly basis and daily for any amendments. The PPC keeps check on different departments by requesting planning and production reports for each day. PPC only receives orders from the Management. With order quantity and dispatch date, it does the planning for product cycle. The top management is in continuous contact with PPC.

Merchandising Department

The department acts as a liaison between the buyer and manufacturing division. On one hand, the department is responsible for notifying changes in the product to the PPC and also to make sure that article is produced as per planning by the PPC and within dispatch time limits. On the other hand, it has to continually update buyer with planning and production status. The department takes care of all correspondence with buyer and is responsible for communicating it to PPC. The department also takes care of necessary sampling such as proto, size set and final which is necessary prior to production.

¹ – Additional capacity of 312.00 lac mtrs per annum partially operational for the year

As mentioned in the table above, in the last three fiscal years from FY 2007 to FY 2009, the Yarn dyeing capacity utilization has been in the range of 90-95% of the total capacity. For the garment manufacturing process, the capacity utilization, inclusive of outsourcing, has been above 90% of the total capacity in the corresponding period. Additionally, in FY 2008, the total capacity utilization was in excess of 100% on account of outsourcing as the existing capacity was not sufficient to meet the production demand.

In textile and apparel industry, 100% capacity utilization is rarely seen as the installed capacity is defined as the maximum output of standard design products without any provision for loss of production due to machine breakdown, shift change, complexity of production process for premium & intricate products, power failures etc. Hence in common parlance, capacity utilization above 90% can be considered as optimum.

Considering these above factors, the Company has decided to undertake expansion projects and the setting up of new facilities.

KEY INDUSTRY REGULATIONS AND POLICIES

The Multi Fiber Arrangement (MFA) & the WTO Agreement on Textiles & Clothing (ATC)

The Multi Fiber Arrangement governed world trade in textiles and garments from 1974 through 1994, imposing quota restrictions on the textile exports from developing countries to developed countries.

Though the MFA was signed in 1974, its roots stretched back to the 1930s. At that time, during a period of global economic distress, Japan emerged as the largest exporter of cotton textiles, and the U.S. and Europe moved to limit imports from Japan to preserve their domestic markets for their own textile industries. These restraints never really went away. By the 1960s, they were extended to Hong Kong, Pakistan, and India. As the restraints on textile trade were globalized, multilateral negotiations ensued, leading to a series of agreements. Initially, the agreements covered only cotton, but they eventually expanded into “multi fiber” arrangements covering textiles and clothing made from all fibers. The MFA was hence introduced in 1974 as a short-term measure intended to allow developed countries to adjust to imports from the developing world.

On January 1, 1995, the MFA was replaced by the WTO Agreement on Textiles and Clothing, which set out a transitional process for the ultimate removal of the aforesaid quotas. The ATC was signed by the signatories to the General Agreement on Tariff and Trade (GATT) on the basis of securing the eventual integration of the textiles and clothing sector into the GATT on the basis of strengthened GATT rules and disciplines whereby quotas were phased out on the basis of an agreed timetable i.e. 16% of imports were made quota-free by January 11, 1995, a further 17% by January 1, 1998, a further 18% by January 1, 2002 and the remaining 49% by January 1, 2005.

The ATC was a transitional instrument, built to ensure the progressive integration of textile and clothing products into the GATT 1994 rules and thereby ensure a liberalization process to progressively enlarge existing quotas (until they are removed) by increasing annual growth rates at each stage.

The abolition on January 1, 2005 of the 42-year-old system of quotas for exports of textiles and clothing has led to the biggest buyer’s market in history. From a situation where normal market rules of ‘caveat emptor’ (let the buyer beware) applied, we have moved to ‘caveat vendor’, where unwary or unprepared suppliers will find themselves without clients. The elimination of quotas has changed the global clothing industry forever, raising the bar for suppliers.

National Textile Policy – 2000 (NTxP – 2000)

The Government of India in November 2000 announced the National Textile Policy – 2000, thereby replacing the previous Textile Policy of 1985. The main objective of the NTxP – 2000 was to enable the industry to attain and sustain a pre-eminent global standing in the manufacture and export of clothing. It aimed at achieving textiles and apparel exports of upto $ 50 billion by 2010 from the present $ 11 billion. It also dereserved the garments sector from the SSI reservation list and lifted the foreign direct investment cap of 24 per cent. The NTxP – 2000 took note of the new challenges and opportunities presented by the changing global environment, particularly the initiation of the process of gradual phasing out of quantitative restrictions on imports and the lowering of tariff levels for an integration of the world textile and clothing markets by the end of 2004.

The objectives of the NTxP – 2000 were

- Facilitate the textile industry to attain and sustain a pre-eminent global standing in the manufacture and export of clothing;
- Equip the textile industry to withstand pressures of import penetration and maintain a dominant presence in the domestic market;
- Liberalise controls and regulations so that the different segments of the textile industry are enabled to perform in a greater competitive environment;
- Enable the textile industry to build world class state-of-the-art manufacturing capabilities in conformity with environmental standards, and for this purpose to encourage both Foreign Direct Investment as well as research and development in the sector;
- Develop a strong multi-fibre base with thrust on product upgradation and diversification;
- Sustain and strengthen the traditional knowledge, skills and capabilities of our weavers and craftspeople;
- Enrich human resource skills and capabilities, with special emphasis on those working in the decentralised sectors of the textile industry; and for this purpose to revitalise the institutional structure;
- Expand productive employment by enabling the growth of the textile industry, with particular effort directed to enhancing the benefits to the north east region;

- Make Information Technology (IT), an integral part of the entire value chain of textile production and thereby facilitate the textile industry to achieve international standards in terms of quality, design and marketing and;
- Involve and ensure the active co-operation and partnership of the State Governments, Financial Institutions, Entrepreneurs, Farmers and Non-Governmental Organisations in the fulfillment of these objectives

Vide the NTxP – 2000 the Government has conveyed its commitment towards providing a conducive environment to enable the Indian textile industry to realise its full potential, achieve global excellence, and fulfill its obligation to different sections of society.

Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS)

Given the significance of the textile industry to the overall health of the Indian economy, its employment potential and the huge historical backlog of technology upgradation, particularly in the context of the liberalization of the national industrial and trade policy and globalization of textile trade, it has been emphasized that in order to sustain and improve its competitiveness and overall long term viability, it is essential for the textile industry to have access to timely and adequate capital at internationally comparable rates of interest in order to upgrade its technology level.

In light of the foregoing, it has been felt necessary to make operational a focused and time-bound Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS) which would provide a focal point for modernization efforts through technology upgradation in the textile industry. The main feature of the TUFS would be a five percent reimbursement on the interest actually charged by the identified financial institutions on the sanctioned projects. The TUFS was launched from April 1, 1999 to March 31, 2007 in order to provide an impetus for the modernization of the textile and jute industry and to further enhance its viability and competitiveness in the domestic and the international markets. Technology upgradation under TUFS would ordinarily mean induction of state-of-the-art or near-state-of-the-art technology. But in the widely varying mosaic of technology obtained in the Indian textile industry, at least a significant step up from the present technology level to a substantially higher one for such trailing segments would be essential. Accordingly, technology levels are bench-marked in terms of specified machinery for each sector of the textile industry. Machinery with technology levels lower than that specified will not be permitted for funding under the TUFS Scheme.

The Hon'ble Finance Minister, in his Budget Speech for the year 2007-08, has announced that the TUFS will be continued during the Eleventh Five Year Plan and has also made a provision of Rs. 911 crore for TUFS during 2007-08. It will further help domestic textile industry to upgrade the technology of existing units, and also to set up new units with state-of-the-art technology for enhancing their viability and competitiveness in the domestic and international markets.

Textiles Committee Act, 1963

The Textiles Committee Act, 1963 came into force on August 22, 1964. The said Act calls for constitution of a Textiles Committee by the Central Government. The said Textiles Committee shall ensure a standard quality of textiles both for internal marketing and export purposes and the manufacture and use of standard types of textile machinery, assisting and encouraging scientific, technological and economic research in the textile industry and textile machinery. The Textiles Committee shall also promote export of textiles and textile machinery and carry on propaganda for that purpose. The said Act also imposes a duty of excise on textiles and textile machinery manufactured in India at such rate, not exceeding one per cent ad valorem as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix. Provided that, no such cess shall be levied on textiles manufactured out of the handloom or power loom industry. However, the Central Government may exempt any variety of textiles or textiles machinery if it is required to do so in the public interest.

The Textiles Committee recognizes standard specifications for textiles and packing materials used in the packing of textiles or textile machinery, for the purposes of export and for internal consumption and affix suitable marks on such standardized varieties of textiles and packing materials.

Vide notification dated January 17, 2007, the Central Government has exempted ready made garments, being a variety of textiles from the levy of whole of the cess, so as to rationalize the tax and cess burden on the readymade garments in the changed scenario of global competitiveness and thus improve the competitiveness of the Indian readymade garment sector in global markets.

Further, vide press release dated May 24, 2007, the Union Cabinet gave its approval for exemption of all textiles and all textile machinery manufactured in India from Textiles Committee cess under the Textiles Committee Act, 1963.

Textile (Development and Regulation) Order, 2001

The Textile (Development and Regulation) Order, 2001 was brought into force by the Central Government under section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 and repealed the Textile (Development and Regulation) Order, 1993. Under the said Order every manufacturer of textiles, textile machinery and every person dealing with textiles shall keep books of accounts, data and other records relating to his business in the matter of production, processing, import, export, supply, distribution, sale, consumption, etc. and shall furnish such returns or information in respect of their business as and when directed by the Textile Commissioner.

The said Order further prescribes filing of an Information Memorandum as per the requisite form with the Textile Commissioner, Mumbai in the event of

- installation of textile machinery for the manufacture of textiles within thirty days of the installation of such machinery;
- relocation, selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of any textile machinery referred to above, within thirty days from the date of such re-location, sale, transfer or disposal; and
- modernization of a textile unit.

The Order further provides that no person shall make any markings on any textiles resembling the brand name or trade name of any other person who has applied for or obtained a registration to that effect under the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 1958 (43 of 1958), except under and limited to the extent of specific authorisation by the holder of or applicant for such brand or trade name.

Textile Workers' Rehabilitation Fund Scheme (TWRFS)

The incidence of sickness and closure in the organized textile industry has been a matter of concern. One main reason of sickness is the structural transformation resulting in the composite units in the organized sector losing ground to power looms in the decentralized sector, on account of the latter's greater cost effectiveness. The other causes of sickness/closure of the industry include low productivity due to lack of modernization, stagnation in demand and inability of some units to expand in the export market, increase in the cost of inputs, difficulties in getting timely and adequate working capital, etc.

In order to protect the interests of the workers of closed mills, the Textile Workers' Rehabilitation Fund Scheme (TWRFS) came into force with the objective of providing interim relief to textile workers rendered unemployed as a consequence of the permanent closure of any particular portion of, or the entire textile unit. The assistance under TWRFS is available to eligible workers only for the purpose of enabling them to settle in other gainful employment and is available only for three years on a tapering basis, but would not extend beyond the date of super-annuation of any worker. The worker is entitled to get relief:

- to the extent of 75% of the wage equivalent in the first year of the closure of the unit;
- to the extent of 50% of the wage equivalent in the second year; and
- to the extent of 25% of the wage equivalent in the third year.

Eligibility criteria for mills

- A closed textile mill should be licensed under the Industrial (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 or registered with the Textile Commissioner as a medium scale unit on the date of the closure.
- The mill should have obtained the requisite permission for closure from the appropriate State Government under Section 25(0) of the Industrial Disputes Act., 1947, or should be taken over by an Official Liquidator appointed by the High Court, and
- The unit should have closed down on or after June 6, 1985.
- This also includes partially closed units, wherein the State Government recommends that an entire uneconomic activity (like weaving or processing) is scrapped as a part of rehabilitation package for a sick/weak mill (as per the RBI definition) approved by the Nodal Agency/BIFR, provided the scrapped capacity is surrendered for cancellation and endorsement is made on the License /Registration certificate to this effect.

Eligibility criteria for workmen

- Any worker is eligible for assistance under the scheme if, he/she has been engaged in a closed textile unit on the date of its closure continuously for five years or more, and had been earning a wage equivalent of Rs. 2500 per month or less, for the mills closed between June 6, 1985 to April 1, 1993, and Rs.3500 or less thereafter.
- They should have been contributing to the Provident Fund maintained by the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner of the State concerned.
- The assistance is not heritable, transferable or capable of being attached on account of any other liability of the worker.
- The worker's eligibility shall cease if he takes up employment in another registered or licensed undertaking.
- The rehabilitation assistance will not be curtailed if the worker engages himself in a self-employment venture.

Scheme for Integrated Textiles Parks (SITP)

The Scheme for Integrated Textile Parks (SITP) was launched in August, 2005, by merging the Apparel Parks for Export Scheme (APE) and the Textile Centre Infrastructure Development Scheme (TCIDS). The primary objective of the SITP is to provide the industry with world-class infrastructure facilities for setting up of textile units in clusters.

The SITP envisages creation of 25 new textile parks of international standards in potential growth centres before 2007-08. Under the SITP, an amount of Rs. 625.00 crores has been provided by the Government of India (GOI) for the development of these Parks. The Government of India's (GOI) support under the SITP by way of Grant or Equity will be limited to 40% of the project cost, subject to a ceiling of Rs. 40.00 crores.

The SITP is being implemented through Special Purpose Vehicles (SPVs). Industry Associations/Groups would be the main promoters of the Integrated Textile Parks (ITPs). The Infrastructure Leasing & Financial Services (ILF&S) has been appointed as the Project Management Consultant for implementing the SITP. The Project Management Consultant will be responsible for the speedy implementation of the Project in a transparent and professional manner, so as to achieve a high degree of quality at a low cost acceptable to the members of the SPV for which a fee will be paid to the Project Management Consultant.

On April 18, 1995 the name of our Company was changed from “Mandhana Textile Mills Limited” to “Mandhana Industries Limited”.

On March 27, 2002, pursuant to Section 43A (2A) of the Companies Act, 1956, our Company was converted from a deemed public limited company to a private limited company and our Company’s name was changed to “Mandhana Industries Private Limited”.

The evolution of our Company can be traced through the following phases:

I: Expansion into major categories of textiles business

Though our Company’s operations started in the year 1984 through textile trading, our processing activities commenced in the year 1994, with setting up of a plant at Tarapur for processing and printing of fabrics called as “Mandhana Dyeing Unit”.

In 1998, pursuant to our venture into fabrics processing, we decided to expand our horizons by penetrating the international garments market and thereby began our export operations to the European market. At present, we export garments on a global scale to international garment markets.

With effect from February 10, 1999 the Registered Office of our Company was changed from C-12, Sarvodaya Nagar, 1st Panjrapole Road, Mumbai – 400002 to 137, Kewal Industrial Estate, Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai – 400013.

Further, in 2002, in order to meet our internal requirements and thereby simultaneously reduce our costs, our Company set up a Weaving House at Tarapur for production of greige fabrics, called as “Mandhana Weaving House Unit”.

With effect from May 3, 2003 the Registered Office of our Company was changed from 137, Kewal Industrial Estate, Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai – 400 013 to 154/155, Kewal Industrial Estate, Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai – 400 013. Further, in 2003, we set up a sales office in Delhi so as to facilitate our market expansion into the northern region of India.

II: Scaling up of operations to become internationally competitive

In 2004, in order to meet our global garment demand, we established a modernised garment manufacturing unit called as “Mandhana Industries Export Division (Bangalore Unit)” at Bangalore. The garments manufactured therein cater to our international demand, thereby meeting the specified international criteria of our various international customers. Further, in 2004, we set up a sales office in Chennai so as to facilitate our market expansion into the southern region of India.

In 2005, we set up a new modernised unit called as “Mandhana Weaving House (Shirting Division)” at Tarapur which is engaged in manufacturing various fabrics including cotton, polyester etc. as well as engaging in the process of yarn dyeing. Further, with the intention of attaining a global image and strengthening our foothold therein, we set up a liaison office at Paris called as “Mandhana Europe”.

On May 11, 2005, the Registered Office of our Company was changed from 154/155, Kewal Industrial Estate, Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai – 400 013 to 205/214, Peninsula Centre, Dr. S. S. Rao Road, Off Dr. Ambedkar Road, Parel (East), Mumbai – 400012.

III: Becoming end to end player in textile and garment market

Our further expansion into processing, weaving and garmenting further enhanced our capacity thereby enabling us to cater to a greater number of customers both domestically and in the export markets. Our focus on quality, designing and sampling inputs and lower turnaround time has made us the vendor of choice for many customers.

Our focus on mid to high-end segments has helped us in maintaining our margins. The current expansion of facilities would complement our presence in the textile and garment value chain starting from yarn dyeing to selling our garments through our overseas offices.

In the year 2008, we commenced our commercial production at three garment manufacturing units set up at Bangalore and we also set up a design studio cum garment sampling house at Sewree, Mumbai.

Our operations and facilities enable us to manufacture a wide variety of value-added fabrics and garments through our integrated operations comprising of dyeing of yarns and fabrics, weaving operations for fabrics, processing solutions for both, fabrics and garments, garment manufacturing, domain expertise in providing sampling and designing for both fabrics and garments.

Factors that may affect Results of Operations

Our business is subject to various determining factors and risks/ uncertainties which have been elaborated in the chapters titled "Risk Factors" and "Business Overview" on pages xii and 78 respectively of this RHP. However, we have also enumerated such factors affecting our results of operations below

1. General economic and business conditions

We are likely to be affected by general economic conditions prevailing in the country where we operate and also the countries where we export. Growth rates of the economy and income levels of consumers are one of the determinants of demand in the textile industry

The European region continues to be a major export market for our Company. A slowdown in these economies translates to lower consumer spending and a consequent risk of lower textile exports to those markets. Our Company is looking to mitigate this risk by spreading the geographical reach for all the product offerings thereby broadening the export client base.

2. Government policies and regulations governing the textile industry including subsidies

We benefit from a number of government incentives that are available to us as a textile and/or export company. These incentives are in the form of subsidies, lower duties on imports of machineries, and duty draw backs on exports of certain items. These incentives are subject to change as a result of changes in applicable laws or other regulatory authorities. Changes have occurred in the past and are likely to occur in the future and any such changes could materially affect our profitability and cash flows. The following are the primary incentives which have a material impact on our results of operations;

1. Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS), under which the ministry of textiles provide 5 % interest reimbursement on the term loans availed for installing specified textile machinery.
2. Capital subsidy, under which the ministry of Textiles provide 10 % capital subsidy on procurement of specified textile machinery
3. Duty Drawback incentive, which accrues on export of our products as a percentage of the value of exports at the rates prescribed by Central Board of Excise and Customs (CBEC)

3. Fluctuations in interest rates and availability of credit

Our Company has undertaken capacity expansions to tap the growth opportunities. A major portion of these expansions has been funded under the Technology Upgradation Funds Scheme (TUFS) which provides interest reimbursement and capital subsidy to textile players with a relatively lower interest cost. Availability of sufficient working capital credit is critical for carrying on our operations smoothly. Also, fluctuations in the interest rates may have an impact on cost of our borrowings.

4. Exchange rate fluctuations

Our Company is exposed to foreign exchange risks by virtue of being an exporter of products / importer of capital goods and also because our Company has availed of foreign currency working capital loans. Hence, where on one hand depreciation of rupee against all other major global currencies namely US Dollar, Euro, British Pound, Swiss Franc and Japanese Yen may benefit us in terms of the conversion of our export receivables; it may increase our cost of importing capital goods and spare parts on the other hand.

To hedge the exchange fluctuation risk, our Company has devised a foreign currency management system which monitors the foreign currency transactions.

5. Competition

We operate in a competitive market environment. We compete with global competitors to retain and gain market share. Our Company also faces competition in the domestic market from both the organised and unorganised sectors.

While the removal of quantitative restrictions has increased the market share of developing countries, such as India, Bangladesh, China and Indonesia, it has also resulted in significant price competition among suppliers from these countries. Our Company's ability to anticipate and respond to pricing and other competitive pressures in the textile industry will be critical to our results of operations in the coming years. Through a diversified product portfolio, quality approach, manufacturing flexibility, modern technology and an expanded marketing network, our Company attempts to overcome these competitive pressures however, these pressures may increase as more companies come up with similar strategies to enter and capture market share.

6. Optimum utilization of installed capacities

Our revenues and net profit have increased with our capacity expansions over the last several years, and we may further expand our capacity to meet increased demand and our growth objectives. Our business is capital-intensive and investments in capacities, new technologies and processes are among the key factors that would contribute to our future growth and profitability.

After the completion of our expansion plans, we expect to benefit from increased economies of scale and improved efficiency, which will have a positive impact on our gross margins. However, these expansions will also increase our interest and depreciation expenses.

Further, Our Company has undertaken expansion of its production capacities based on its estimates of market demand and profitability. In the event of non-materialisation of our estimates and expected orders due to factors including adverse economic scenario, change in demand, change in fashion, etc., our capacities may not be fully utilised thereby adversely impacting our financial performance.

* CAGR has been calculated between FY06 and FY09

Income from sale of textiles grew at a CAGR of 36.77% from Rs 12,064.60 lacs in FY 2006 to Rs 30,867.68 lacs in FY 2009. This has been on account of several factors such as:-

- Opening of sales offices at new locations in the country. Initially the sales function was handled from our corporate office located in Mumbai whereas over the years, we have added sales offices at New Delhi, Chennai and Bangalore. We presently have a network of around 60 dealers and agents across the country.
- Launch of new products using the in-house processing technology during the period from FY 2006 to FY 2009. Some of the innovative fabrics introduced by us were mosquito repellent fabric, oil repellent fabric, stain-free fabrics, UV protector fabrics, anti-bacterial fabrics etc.
- Modification plans undertaken at our weaving and fabric processing units in FY 2007, FY 2008 and FY 2009 which resulted in improved quality of greige and finished fabrics manufactured by us.

The expansion in capacities in the textile division has been faster than in the garmenting division and thus the former has accounted for a larger share of the revenues. We believe we have an established presence in the division owing to the experience of our promoters which enables us to benefit from a robust marketing network and understanding of the industry. For the nine month period ended December 31, 2009 our income from the sale of textiles was Rs. 35,870.17 lacs which was 81.66% of our sales for the period.

Income from sale of Ready made Garments grew at a CAGR of 36.56% from Rs 6,070.19 lacs in FY 2006 to Rs 15,457.49 lacs in FY 2009. A majority of our revenues from garments sales in the year 2009, constituting 88.06% of the garment sales, came from exports including charges on sample pieces sent to customers for approval and duty drawback on account of exports of garments.

We commenced in-house commercial manufacturing of garments in September 2004. Subsequently, we have set up three garments units at Bangalore in FY 2008 and a design studio cum sampling unit at Mumbai in FY 2009. The expansion in garment manufacturing to the current capacity of 36.00 lac pieces per year has increased the revenues from the garmenting division. We commenced domestic sale of garments in FY 2007.

We have identified the garment division as one of the highest growth potential areas for our Company. We have embarked on a strategy of catering to a clientele offering better margins on the products sold to them. We propose to increase our capacities in the garmenting division as has been elaborated in the section titled “Business Overview” on page 78 of the Red Herring Prospectus.

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2009, our income from sale of Ready made Garments was Rs. 8,055.57 lacs which was 18.34% of our sales for the period. Our garments business is seasonal in nature and over the years majority of our income from the sale of Ready made Garments is derived in the last quarter of the Fiscal Year.

Several factors contributed to the growth in revenues which have been described under the heading ‘Segment -wise break-up of Revenues’ on page 199 of this section. We believe our quality standards have ensured that a large proportion of our customer base comprises of repeat customers; 9 of our top ten customers were repeat customers in FY 2009. In textile segment, the increase in revenues has been primarily due to the addition of the shirting division which enlarged the scope of our offerings along with the introduction of yarn-dyed greige fabric and finished fabric. These are value-added textile products that offer potential for higher realizations such as innovative varieties of finished fabric. Our vertical integration efforts have yielded cost benefits. As a result of which, our EBIDTA margins have grown from 10.03% in FY 2006 to 16.02% in FY 2009. The growth in sales is also attributable to penetrative marketing and better customer service.

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2009, EBIDTA and EBIDTA margins, for our textiles segment were Rs. 7,048.65 lacs and 19.65% respectively.

In garment segment, the growth in revenue is due to capacity expansion programs undertaken by our Company during past three years. It is also attributable to higher price realisations achieved as a result of innovative design solutions and stricter adherence to quality standards and delivery schedules. We have been able to improve our margins from 10.27% in FY 2006 to 25.01% in FY 2009.

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2009, EBIDTA and EBIDTA margins, for our garments segment were Rs. 2,279.55 lacs and 28.30% respectively.

Further, as our products are positioned in the premium fashion segment in a value-driven, fashion-conscious market, we enjoy better margins. For the nine month period ended December 31, 2009, we derived 77.79% of our export revenues from Europe.

A. Comparison of Performance and Analysis of Developments for the financial year ended March 31, 2009 vis-à-vis Financial year ended March 31, 2008

Major Events during the year

- The CDR / CBR process units of our Company started their operation in March, 2009.
- Commercial operation at the garment sampling studio at Sewree started in September, 2008.

Sales

Our sales increased from Rs. 40,693.94 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 46,325.17 lacs in FY 2009 registering a growth rate 13.84%. The growth is mainly attributable to the growth in garment exports from Rs. 10,264.83 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 13,611.35 lacs in FY 2009 and additionally due to the moderate growth in textile sales from Rs. 29,328.25 lacs to Rs. 30,867.68 lacs in the mentioned period.

Other Income/ loss

Our other income consists of interest income from bank deposits and customers, rent received on company property, foreign exchange fluctuations gains/losses, profit on sale of assets and discount received on raw material purchases. We have incurred a loss of Rs 329.11 lacs in FY 2009 on account of foreign exchange fluctuation loss of Rs. 448.49 lacs. Our other income for FY 2008 was Rs 465.73 lacs, this was due to foreign exchange fluctuation gain of Rs. 217.51 lacs and profit on sale of asset of Rs. 259.21 lacs.

Net material cost and manufacturing expenses

Net Material cost has increased from Rs. 25,803.21 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 29,089.12 lacs in FY 2009. It has reduced as a proportion of sales from 63.41 % in FY 2008 to 62.79 % in FY 2009. This was on account of increased revenue base and cost reduction benefits due to the increase in vertical integration of our operations. Manufacturing expenses have increased from Rs 3,257.65 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs 3,507.17 lacs in FY 2009. However, manufacturing expenses as a percentage of sales has decreased from 8.01% to 7.57% for the same period. This was on account of higher productivity and cost reduction by sustained negotiations with the suppliers.

Finance charges

Finance charges have increased from Rs. 1,451.94 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 1,757.14 lacs in FY 2009. This is on account of increase in term loans availed from Rs. 16,000.27 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 21,761.66 lacs in FY 2009 to fund the expansion projects of the Company. It is also due to increase in working capital loans and other short term loans from Rs. 6,761.84 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs. 10248.18 lacs in FY 2009 to meet Company's growing working capital needs.

Depreciation

Profit after tax

Profit after tax has increased from Rs. 3,531.75 lacs in FY 2008 to Rs 3,647.92 lacs in FY 2009, registering a growth of 3.29% which is primarily due to increase in turnover, though this increase was not in the same proportion as the growth in turnover on account of foreign exchange fluctuation losses.

Other Income

Other income has increased from Rs. 102.88 lacs in FY 2007 to Rs. 465.73 lacs in FY 2008 which reflects a growth of 352.70%. This increase is on account of increase in foreign exchange fluctuation gains, profit on sale of assets and interest income.

Finance charges

Finance charges have increased from Rs. 794.54 lacs in FY 2007 to Rs. 1,451.94 lacs in FY 2008. Note: The figures for each year indicate the capacity available from the date of capacity installation

$ - Additional capacity of 15.00 lac pieces per annum was operational for a part of the year

– Additional capacity of 120.00 lac kgs operational for a part of the year six month

¹ – Additional capacity of 312.00 lac mtrs was partially operational for the year

The table above presents the capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities and is symbolic of the demand for our products and nature of our capacity expansion.

A majority of our yarn dyeing capacity aggregating to 90.36% is utilized for our in-house requirements and the remaining capacity is utilized for job-work purposes. In FY 2009, we have increased our yarn-dyeing capacity in Tarapur from 150,000 kgs per month to 300,000 kgs per month.

Our weaving capacity is utilized solely for our requirements and is consumed for either further processing or for sale in the open market. We have an established presence in the greige fabrics segment.

The output of the weaving activity is greige fabric and we produce broadly two main categories of grieger fabric – simple greige with a production capacity of 6.50 lac meters per month and yarn-dyed greige with a production capacity of 8.50 lac meters per month. We introduced the production of yarn-dyed greige in March, 2006 which is a superior product to the simple greige, utilized for export-quality garments and fetches better realization and margins. For instance, in 2008-2009, a meter of plain greige fabric realized an average price of Rs. 47.62 while a meter of yarn-dyed greige fabric realized a price of Rs. 53.02.

The output of the fabric processing activity is finished cloth and our processing capacities are utilized for own requirements as well as job-work. The production of finished cloth is used mainly for in-house consumption for garmenting and external demand for finished fabric.

However the capacity utilization shows a decreasing trend as the fabric processing capacity is defined by the capacity available for top-dyeing (stenter-finish) which is a required treatment irrespective of the nature of the fabric output

Over the last three years, the proportion of in-house fabric processing to job-work has increased. As in-house fabric processing is done on the piece-dyeing basis wherein all dyeing processes are used as against job-work that utilizes only the top-dyeing process, the dependence on the stenter-machines has relatively reduced.

We try to ensure that our garmenting capacities are utilized in an optimum manner. The garment business displays seasonality and in the peak production season, our manufacturing capacities are optimally utilized and production is also outsourced partially on a job-work basis. We offer garments in the premium segments primarily in the overseas market which involve intricate styles. With the growing demand for our garment products, we have undertaken plans to enhance the garment manufacturing capacity.

In FY 2008, our current assets had significantly increased on account of increase in deposits with related parties from FY 2007 to FY 2008. Against this increase in deposit, the monthly rent payable by the Company for the said property was reduced.

Our Company has filed this application against Mr. R. Suraksh under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, for an interim injunction to be passed against Mr. R. Suraksh restraining him from leasing out the property situated at Plot no. 10 A, situated at Peenya 2nd phase, Industrial Area, Bangalore-58.

Our Company had entered into a lease agreement with Mr. R. Suraksh for the said property on July 10, 2006. As alleged by our Company a payment of Rs. 85,00,000 towards the interest free refundable security deposit was made. It was alleged that Mr. R. Suraksh thereafter did not show interest in completing the pending formalities of getting the said agreement registered thereby making the possession of the said property available to our Company. The sum of Rs. 85,00,000 paid towards the interest free refundable security deposit was also deposited into the bank account of our Company without intimation.

It has been further alleged that Mr. R. Suraksh in order to realise a higher amount of rent for the said property had been negotiating with one M/s Shahi Exports and has been making arrangements to transfer the possession of the said property to M/s. Shahi Exports. It has also been contended that since the lease deed is governed by the arbitration clause an interim injunction shall be passed against Mr. R. Other Instructions

Joint Bids in the case of Individuals

Bids may be made in single or joint names (not more than three). In the case of joint Bids, all payments will be made out in favour of the Bidder whose name appears first in the Bid cum Application Form or Revision Form. All communications will be addressed to the First Bidder and will be dispatched to his or her address as per the Demographic details received from the Depository.

Multiple Bids

A Bidder should submit only one Bid (and not more than one) for the total number of Equity Shares required. Two or more Bids will be deemed to be multiple Bids if the sole or First Bidder is one and the same.

In this regard, the procedures to be followed by the Registrar to the Issue to detect multiple applications are given below:

1. All applications with the same name and age will be accumulated and taken to a separate process file which will serve as a multiple master document.
2. In this master, a check will be carried out for the same PAN numbers. In cases where the PAN numbers are different, the same will be deleted from this master.
3. The Registrar will obtain, from the depositories, details of the applicant's address based on the DP ID and Beneficiary Account Number provided in the Bid cum Application Form and create an address master.
4. The addresses of all these applications from the multiple master will be strung from the address master. This involves including the addresses in a single line after deleting non-alpha and nonnumeric characters, i.e., commas, full stops, hashes, etc. Sometimes, the name, the first line of the address and pin code will be converted into a string for each application received and a photo match will be performed among the applications processed. A print-out of the addresses will be made to check for common names. Applications with the same name and same address will be treated as multiple applications.
5. The applications will be scanned for similar DP ID and client identity numbers. If applications bear the same numbers, these will be treated as multiple applications.
6. After the aforesaid procedures, a print-out of the multiple master will be taken and the applications physically verified to tally signatures and also father's/husband's names. Upon completion of this exercise, the applications will be identified as multiple applications.
7. After consolidation of all the masters as described above, a print out of the same will be taken and the applications physically verified to tally signatures as also father's/husband's names. On completion of this, the applications will be identified as multiple applications.
8. In cases where there are more than 21 valid applicants having a common address, such shares will be kept in abeyance, post allotment and released on confirmation of KYC norms by the depositories.

In case of a mutual fund, a separate Bid can be made in respect of each scheme of the mutual fund registered with SEBI and such Bids in respect of more than one scheme of the mutual fund will not be treated as multiple Bids provided that the Bids clearly indicate the scheme concerned for which the Bid has been made. Bids by QIBs under the Anchor Investor Portion and QIB Portion (excluding Anchor Investor Portion) will not be considered as multiple Bids.

Our Company in consultation with BRLMs & designated stock exchange reserves the right to reject, in our absolute discretion, all or any multiple Bids in any or all categories.

July 2, 2007.

Pursuant to Item XII(B)(17)(c) of Part A of Schedule VIII to the SEBI Regulations, all applicants are required to disclose their PAN allotted under the I.T. Act in the Bid-cum-Application Form, irrespective of the amount of the Bid. Applications in which PAN so allotted is not mentioned would be rejected.

Therefore, irrespective of the amount of the Bid, the Bidder or in the case of a Bid in joint names, each of the Bidders should mention his/her PAN allotted under the I.T. Act. Applications without this information will be considered incomplete and are liable to be rejected. It is to be specifically noted that Bidders should not submit the GIR Number instead of the PAN as the Bid is liable to be rejected on this ground.

Unique Identification Number-MAPIN

SEBI has, with effect from July 2, 2007 declared that the PAN would be the sole identification number for participants transacting in the securities market, irrespective of the amount of transaction. Thus the use of UIN has been discontinued.

The Bidding Period will commence on April 27, 2010 and expire on April 29, 2010. Following the expiration of the Bidding Period, our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, will determine the Issue Price, and, in consultation with the BRLMs, the basis of allocation and entitlement to allotment based on the Bids received and subject to the confirmation by the BSE/NSE. Successful Bidders will be provided with a confirmation of their allocation and will be required to pay any unpaid amount for the Equity Shares within a prescribed time. SEBI (ICDR) Regulations require our Company to complete the allotment to successful bidders within 15 days of the expiration of the Bidding Period. The Equity Shares will then be credited and allotted to the investors’ demat accounts maintained with the relevant Depository Participant. Upon approval by the Stock Exchanges, the Equity Shares will be listed and trading will commence.

Method of Proportionate Basis of Allotment

In the event of the Issue being over-subscribed, we shall finalize the basis of allotment to Retail Individual Bidders and Non-Institutional Bidders and QIBs in consultation with the Designated Stock Exchange. The Executive Director or Managing Director (or any other senior official nominated by them) of the Designated Stock Exchange along with the BRLMs and the Registrar to the Issue shall be responsible for ensuring that the basis of allotment is finalized in a fair and proper manner.

Allotment to Bidders shall be as per the basis of allocation as set out in the chapter titled ‘Issue Structure’ beginning on page no. 244 of this Red Herring Prospectus

- (a) Bidders will be categorized according to the number of Equity Shares applied for by them.
- (b) The total number of Equity Shares to be allotted to each category as a whole shall be arrived at on a proportionate basis, being the total number of Equity Shares applied for in that portion (number of Bidders in the portion multiplied by the number of Equity Shares applied for) multiplied by the inverse of the over-subscription ratio.
- (c) Number of Equity Shares to be allotted to the successful Bidders will be arrived at on a proportionate basis, being the total number of Equity Shares applied for by each Bidder in that category multiplied by the inverse of the over-subscription ratio.
- (d) In all Bids where the proportionate Allotment is less than [•] Equity Shares per Bidder, the Allotment shall be made as follows:
 - Each successful Bidder shall be allotted a minimum of [•] Equity Shares; and
 - The successful Bidders out of the total Bidders for a portion shall be determined by draw of lots in a manner such that the total number of Equity Shares allotted in that portion is equal to the number of Equity Shares calculated in accordance with (b) above.
- (e) If the Equity Shares allocated on a proportionate basis to any category are more than the Equity Shares allotted to the Bidders in that portion, the remaining Equity Shares available for Allotment shall be first adjusted against any other portion, where the Equity Shares are not sufficient for proportionate Allotment to the successful Bidders in that portion. The balance Equity Shares, if any, remaining after such adjustment will be added to the portion comprising Bidders applying for minimum number of Equity Shares.
- (d) In case the proportionate allotment to any Bidders is in fractions, then the same would be rounded off to nearest integer. If the proportionate allotment to a Bidder is a number that is more than [•] but is not a multiple of 1 (which is the marketable lot), the number in excess of the multiple of 1 would be rounded off to the higher multiple of 1 if that number is 0.5 or higher. If that number is lower than 0.5, it would be rounded off to the lower multiple of 1. All Bidders in such categories would be allotted Equity Shares arrived at after such rounding off.

- (e) Subject to valid Bids being received, allocation of Equity Shares to Anchor Investors shall be at the sole discretion of the Company, in consultation with the BRLMs.

CRISIL has reaffirmed CRISIL IPO Grade '3/5' (pronounced 'three on five') to the proposed Initial Public Offer of Mandhana Industries Limited. (CRISIL Research has undertaken a fresh grading exercise for MIL as the grading assigned to the company on Sept 29, 2008 had expired.) The grade indicates that the fundamentals of the issue are average relative to other listed equity securities in India. However, this grade is not an opinion on whether the issue price is appropriate in relation to the issue fundamentals. The offer price for the issue may be higher or lower than the level justified by its fundamentals. The grade is not a recommendation to buy / sell or hold the graded instrument, the graded instrument's future market price or its suitability for a particular investor.

The grading reflects the company's design oriented operations in niche segments of both fabrics and garments business. The company's Europe based design-focused client profile has helped it to sustain volumes and margins in a period of turmoil for Indian garment exporters. MIL's ability to create a shelf of fabric and garment designs gives it an edge while dealing with its design-focused client profile in the casual wear segment.

However, the company faces a high degree of competition from many large and small players in the domestic and international markets. The grading also reflects the management's capability to consistently perform in adverse business conditions.

➤ Ability to generate new designs gives it a distinct advantage over competition

The company has a team of 14 designers for garments for generation of new designs. Close to 1,200 designs are generated in a year, which are achieved in the design studio. The client has the option to select styles from the new designs or from the archive of designs in the design studio. Also, the design staff can modify styles to suit customer requirements. MIL also possesses an extensive sampling unit where designers have options to mix and match fabrics, designs, finishes and embellishments, exercising their creative freedom. The company has seven designers on the fabric side, designing fabrics with differentiated texture, finishes, designs, jacquards and embroideries.

➤ Focus on high end products with better realisations

MIL is focused on manufacturing value added products in garments as well as fabrics, providing the company with superior realisations. For garments, MIL is focused largely on men's informal wear for big brands in Europe, namely Simint Spa (Armani), OXBOW, Pepe Jeans, FCUK, Promod, Teddy Smith and Rip Curl. The company provides design inputs in addition to manufacturing garments for these brands. These brands order small lots of each style with higher realisation per garment. The average realisation per piece has increased steadily for the company from Rs. 282 in 2003-04 to Rs. 377 in 2008-09.

On the fabrics side, the company sells fabrics with different textures and finishes that go into production of premium quality shirting. Some of the fabric clients include exporters of garments and large players like Bombay Rayon Fashions Ltd, Aditya Birla Nuvo, Wrangler and Pantaloon.

➤ Business model of the company is difficult to scale up

The business model is focused on low volume and high value products, which provide higher margins. As the scale of operations increases with capacity expansion, the company will need to sell higher volumes. The company will have the ability to sustain margins given new design based garment business model.

➤ Favorable government policies

The fabric and garments sector is one of the largest employment generators for the country. Hence, the government policies are favorable towards the sector. The company enjoys interest rate subsidy under the TUFs scheme as well as duty drawback benefit for its exports.

➤ Well-structured management team, especially for managing clients

The company has a well-structured management team in place for each function. Each function has a head who manages a qualified second line of management with clearly defined roles and responsibilities. The company has well-structured team for managing key clients comprising of 25 merchandisers who are responsible for timely delivery of garments and expanding business from existing customers. This merchandising team aids in understanding and meeting customer expectations, at the same time provides increased business from each client.

➤ High degree of competition from many large and small players

The degree of competition is very high on both, fabrics as well as garments side, with many small and large players. Margin expansion is extremely difficult in an industry with a large number of players. The company will have to continuously innovate producing new designs and focus on improving the operational efficiency through technological improvements in order to maintain margins. However, of late the industry has witnessed vendor consolidation in the industry which benefited players integrated players like MIL.
